GERMAN DASH FAILS

LOSE HEAVILY TO RUSSIANS

Daring Maneuvers of Germans in Poland Ends in Disaster.

FRENCH ATTACKS ARE BEATEN OFF

Battle in Passes of Carpathians Tremendous in Possibilities.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

A defeat of German forces in northern Poland, attended with unusually heavy losses, is reported unofficially from Petrograd. This information is to the effect that the Germans fell back in the Niemen river district, expecting that the Russians would pursue them and be crushed by a flanking movement. Petrograd states that the maneuver failed and that "entire" divisions of Germans were annihilated. The German official statement of today fails making no specific reference to such an engagement, announcing that the Russians have suffered reverses at various points north of the Prussian frontier.

Concerning the western front the Berlin communication states that French assaults were beaten back with heavy losses to the attacking forces. The French war office says the situation is unchanged. A German submarine was sighted and attacked by a French cruiser off Dieppe. A statement from the French navy ministry indicated that the submarine may have been sunk as it rose to the surface. The British steamer Flaminia was sunk in the English channel by the German submarine U-28. The crew was permitted to take to the small boats and were rescued.

Petrograd, March 31.—The long silence in Petrograd concerning the operations on the German front was broken today by an authentic report of a daring German maneuver in the Niemen river district which, according to this information, began abortively and ended in failure.

The gradual withdrawal of the central part of their Tenth army, a move calculated to draw all the Russian forces into the advance between Suwalki and Kalvaria, was to be followed, according to the Russian interpretations of the German plan, by a quick encircling movement of their left flank from the vicinity of Lake Dusa and Lake Nimno to the rear. This, it was planned, would cut off the retreat of the advancing Russians and at the same time they would be outflanked.

Troops Cross Melting Ice. Overzealousness in achieving this aim led the German generals to throw a large part of their Twenty-first army corps with three reserve regiments, amounting in all to an entire corps, across the melting ice of Lake Dusa, before the middle group of the Russian forces had advanced sufficiently to assure the success of the proposed encircling maneuver. Having surmounted the hazards of the transportation of these troops over weak ice the Germans discovered, according to the reports coming to Petrograd, that their movement was premature, and a desperate effort to retract their step they were met by a fierce Russian onslaught.

According to their account of this fighting the Russians annihilated the entire divisions of Germans. At other points along the German front isolated engagements continue, but they are without strategic significance.

FRENCH ATTACK REPULSED.

Enemy Sustained Heavy Losses, Says Berlin Report.

Berlin, March 31.—At the war office today the following announcement was made: At Point-a-Mousson French attacks near, and east of Regiville and in the forest of Le Pretre were repulsed. The enemy sustained heavy losses; and at only one place, to the west of forest of Le Pretre, is the engagement still continuing. "Hostile" aviation yesterday threw bombs on the Belgian town of Bruges, Ghent and Courtrai without doing any damage to military establishments. In Courtrai, near a hospital, one Belgian was killed and one wounded.

On the Russian frontier, in the district north of Mamel, the banks of the river were cleared of the enemy. The Russians were defeated near Tauragon and captured in the district of...

ENGINEERING FORCE ON CANAL DISSOLVED

Only Four Will Be Kept on the Job Until Report Completed.

Fifteen engineers and surveyors employed on the survey for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal, many of them for the past year, will be let out by Capt. L. H. Watkins Wednesday evening as their services are no longer needed. Four engineers will be kept on the job until about the 15th of April, by which time Captain Watkins expects to have his report practically completed and ready for the army board. The local office, however, will not close until about the first of May.

A banquet for the engineers and surveyors will be given Wednesday evening at the Baltes hotel and on Thursday they will leave for their respective homes. A few of them will return to school. Up to a late hour Wednesday Captain Watkins was unable to give a list of the engineers that will be released as he had not fully decided which four to keep.

STATE DEPARTMENT HAS NO OBJECTION

Does Not Oppose Credit Arrangements With Beligerents.

Washington, March 31.—The state department has not felt justified, Secretary Bryan announced today, in objecting to credit arrangements made with belligerent governments by American financiers insofar as they have been brought to the department's attention. Secretary Bryan said the department had taken no action and expressed no opinion on them.

Secretary Bryan issued this statement: "The state department has from time to time received information directly or indirectly, to the effect that belligerent nations had arranged with banks in the United States for credits in various sums. While loans to belligerents have not been approved, this government has not felt that it was justified in interposing objections to the credit arrangements which have been brought to its attention. It has neither approved these nor disapproved it has simply taken no action in the premises and expressed no opinion."

Secretary Bryan was asked if his statement referred to loans recently reported to be under negotiation in this country by the French, Russian and other belligerent governments, and totaling, in the aggregate, a large sum. The secretary replied that his statement referred only to such of those negotiations as had been called to the department's attention. He refused to discuss specific transactions.

MARSHALLS NOW AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Cal., March 31.—Vice President and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, accompanied by Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, Mrs. Roosevelt and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Winston, arrived here from San Diego early today.

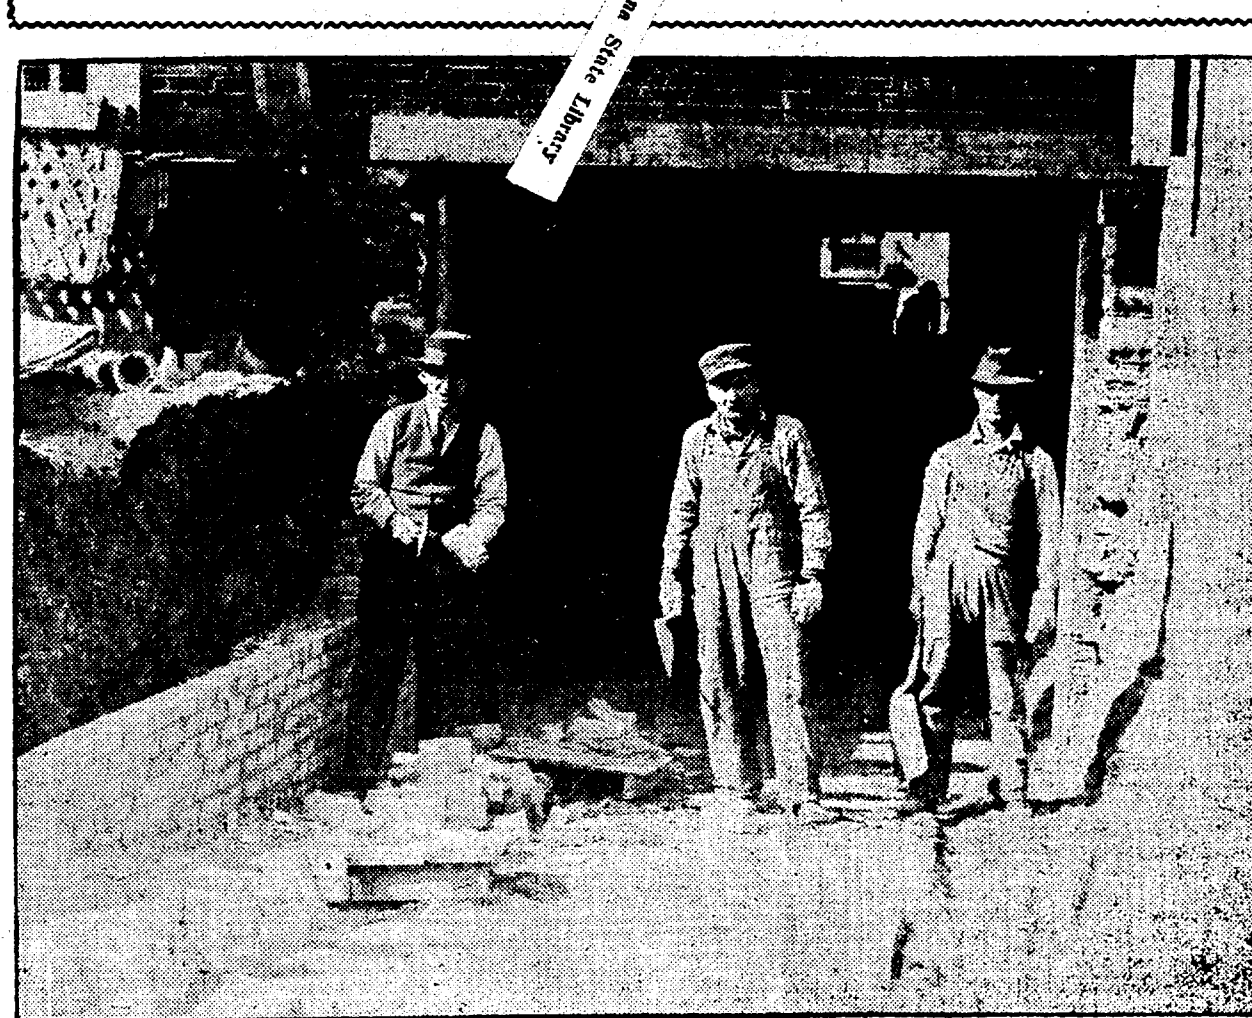

After a brief rest Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and Mr. and Mrs. Winston left Los Angeles for the Grand Canyon of Arizona, where they will stay a few days before returning to Washington. Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will stay here until Friday, when they will leave for Arizona, where several days will be spent.

FIELD ARTILLERY ON JOB AT BROWNSVILLE

Brownsville, Tex., March 31.—Three batteries of the United States Third field artillery arrived here early today to be ready, if necessary, to protect Brownsville when Matamoros is under attack. Maj.-Gen. Frederick Funston, sent here by the war department today to see that the American border is not violated, expressed himself as pleased at the prompt movement of the artillery. It entrained in San Antonio yesterday.

Matamoros was quiet early today with no indications when the Villa troops would begin the attack, which has caused fear of risk to Brownsville through rifle or cannon fire. During the night two skirmishes were held at widely separated points. One of these indicated that the Villa troops have penetrated to the river from the north, and the other that they have penetrated to the river from the south.

TUNNEL UNDER HOUSE TO MAKE AUTO DRIVEWAY.

Digging a tunnel under the house occupied by the Chalfant and Egly undertaking establishment on West Washington boulevard, a gang of men is building an underground automobile drive to connect the Overland garage in the rear, and at the far end of the tunnel (indicated on the picture by the distant light) an electric elevator will be installed to lift automobiles to the second floor.

WILL RENEW WAR ON RUM

Fight for Dry Nation to Gain More Vigor, Says Senator Sheppard.

EXPECTS SUPPORT FROM REPUBLICANS

World Wide Movement for Prohibition, Declares Texas Statesman.

Washington, March 31.—The fight for nation wide prohibition will be renewed with greater vigor than ever at the next session of congress, Senator Sheppard, of Texas, announced today. Senator Sheppard started the movement for local prohibition in the district of Columbia, which, however, failed of passage at the last session.

"We will renew the fight all along the line," he said, "as soon as congress convenes. I expect we will have strong support from the republican side, as well as from the democratic party. The effort will be for both favorable action and submission of a proposed constitutional amendment for prohibition the country over, as well as local prohibition in the district of Columbia. Senator Sheppard declared the action of Lloyd-George, the British chancellor of the exchequer, denouncing drink as a greater foe to fight than either Austria or Germany, was significant.

"The experience of Russia and the declaration of Chancellor Lloyd George, as to what should be done there," said Senator Sheppard, "shows there is a world wide movement for prohibition."

EVERYBODY RUNS JITNEYS.

Auto Owners Reap Harvest as Strike Ties Up Car Lines.

Springfield, Mass., March 31.—Not a trolley car in Springfield, except a few used in the service of the United States mail has moved since the calling of the strike of the trolley men early today. The men held a conference today while the officers of the Springfield Street Railway company also were in session, but there were no early developments as a result of these meetings. Virtually every person who owns a touring car or motor truck collected a harvest as a result of the strike.

WEATHER RECORDS SMASHED.

Snow and Sleet in South Carolina Worst Since 1887.

Washington, March 31.—Another wintry storm swept the southeastern states last night and early today, bringing snow over the Carolinas, Tennessee and North Georgia, and several inches further south. South Carolina was swept by a soft and slow storm of unusual severity, which weather officials say broke all records since 1887. Snow and sleet fell in heavy quantities over the entire state, and in some places the snow lay deep enough to make travel impossible.

LAST MINUTE NEWS QUASH REMAINING ARSON INDICTMENTS

Chicago, March 31.—Sixteen indictments remaining against Joseph Fish, millionaire fire insurance adjuster, who has been twice acquitted of charges of arson, were quashed today as the evidence in all of the cases is similar.

ANOTHER BRITISH STEAMER TORPEDOED

Cardiff, Wales, March 31.—The Cardiff Echo declares that the British steamer, Crown of Castle, has been torpedoed and sunk off the Scilly islands.

SEE PLOT TO WRECK LINER

American Passenger Arrested for Fire Aboard the La Touraine.

SAY HE INTENDED TO BLOW UP SHIP

French Accuse Swoboda of "Close Relations With Enemy."

Paris, March 31.—Raymond Swoboda, one of the passengers aboard the French line steamship La Touraine, which was imperiled by a fire at sea on March 6, has been arrested charged with setting fire to the vessel, according to the Matin. Swoboda, the paper asserts, is suspected of having "close relations with the enemy," and correspondence found in his rooms is said to indicate he had been charged with the task of blowing up the Touraine. He has been taken to Havre.

Investigation made by experts appointed by Admiral Charlier, who is conducting the inquiry into the steamship fire, has established, it is said, the fact that the blaze aboard the Touraine must have been caused by the explosion of some detonating device. Statements made by passengers and members of the crew support this theory.

Deaths Wrecked Losses. The explosion was sufficiently violent to wreck some of the doors of cabins near by. The authorities believe the explosion had been planned with criminal intent, and that it was intended to sink the ship and its passengers.

REDMAN HAS TOUGH TIME

Terre Haute Judge Given a Grilling on Cross-Examination.

DAILEY IS DIGGING DEEP INTO DETAILS

Probes Accused Jurist Regarding "Acts, Legal and Otherwise."

BULLETIN.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Counsel for Sheriff Dennis Shea, City Judge Thomas Smith, Maurice Walsh, Wm. Doyle and George Woodall, defendants in the Terre Haute election fraud cases, announced this afternoon that they rested their case without introducing any evidence.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Eli H. Redman, who was declared elected judge of the Vigo circuit court at the election of last November by ten votes, who is one of the twenty-eight defendants in the Terre Haute election case in the federal court, was given a severe grilling on cross examination by District Attorney Dailey, when court resumed today.

Redman was first asked about his trip the day after the election to Governor Ralston's office, where a commission for him as judge was requested and refused by the governor on the ground that the papers were not proper and it would seem to be done with "undue haste."

What Records Show. Mr. Dailey then asked regarding acts "legal and otherwise" which Redman had performed in order to hold his position as judge. It was shown by records of the Vigo court that Charles Clogston, editor of the Terre Haute Post, who referred to the grand jury empaneled by Redman to investigate the election as "the gang picked grand jury," was served at 3 p. m. in court and show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court. Over motions of the defense for more time to prepare a defense, Clogston, the records show was sentenced to thirty days in jail at 4:30 p. m. Clogston was released on a writ from the federal court.

Produced More Records. It was also brought out by Mr. Dailey that three members of the six Vigo grand jurors had served as officials in the election. Redman denied that Frank B. Phipps, who was appointed by Redman a special judge to hear the contest suit brought by C. J. Pulliam, the republican candidate, against Redman, had ever been Redman's attorney. Mr. Dailey then produced records from the Vigo court at Terre Haute showing that Phipps had been appointed by Redman as a special judge to hear the contest suit.

PRINZ EITEL COALS TO ATTEMPT A DASH

German Cruiser Prepares to Make Good Its Defiance to Waiting Foes.

Newport News, Va., March 31.—Barge loads of coal for the German auxiliary cruiser, Prinz Eitel Friedrich, were brought down in Hampton Roads this afternoon. Commander Thierichens planned to begin coaling his raider late today.

Coupling these circumstances with repeated declarations of the Eitel's commander and crew that they would make a dash to sea on a favorable opportunity, shipping circles today were seriously considering the possibility that Commander Thierichens might make good his del to the hostile cruisers outside the capes and make a dash on a dark or foggy night.

The Eitel remained at the dock today, while seven miles away in Hampton Roads the United States battleship Alabama lies at anchor with steam up and still receiving supplies. Concerning the conference here yesterday between Commander Thierichens and local customs officials, all concerned still are silent.

AL HAZZARD GOES UNDER THE KNIFE

Al Hazzard, the widely known cigar manufacturer, who resides at 610 Sixth street, was taken ill very suddenly Tuesday afternoon and a few hours later, upon advice from the physicians, was removed to the St. Joseph hospital, where an operation was performed in the evening. He was suffering from gallstones.

The operation was successful and reports from the hospital and attending physicians are that Mr. Hazzard is doing as nicely as can be expected. Mr. Hazzard was about his work Monday all day and was on the streets that evening. He complained Tuesday morning and his condition became worse during the day. Towards evening he was suffering from such intense pain that the physicians decided that an operation was the only thing which would bring relief.

DEFENSE IS NOW MAKING ITS FIGHT

Preliminary of Miss Wilson on Murder Charge Not Yet Completed.

(Special to The Sentinel.) Van Wert, Ohio, March 31.—Defense in the case against Miss Lula Wilson, for the fatal shooting of Attorney Levi X. Jacobs last Friday evening, today began the introduction of testimony in the preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Marshall. It is said that several days may be required for the defense, which contends that the shooting was done in self-defense and was justifiable. Clothing worn by the lawyer when he was shot was introduced in evidence by the defense. The shooting took place at the residence of the deceased, where he was visiting.

MARCH BOOM IN BUILDING

Record for Month Shows Gain of $75,000 Over March, 1914.

FIRST QUARTER OF YEAR SHOWS GAIN

Bulk of Operations is in Residence of Moderate Cost.

That the state of business and finance in the country has not worked with untoward effect on the growth and development of Fort Wayne is strikingly proved by the building operations in the city for the month just closing, during which the total of permits issued by the building inspection department at the city hall was $231,000, as against a total for the same month last year of $176,773, a gain of $54,227.

The operations for the first quarter of the present year were over $51,000 in excess of the figures for the first three months of 1914.

The following figures have been compiled by Andrew App, clerk in Building Inspector Philip Wyss' office:

March, 1915, 95 permits.....$251,000
March, 1914, 90 permits.....176,773
Gain for 1915.....$74,227
The Quarters Compared.

For the first quarters of 1914 and 1915 the figures show:

January.....$35,354
February.....103,300
March.....176,775
Total.....$315,429
—1915—
January.....$35,106
February.....80,108
March.....251,690
Total.....$366,890

Largely Residences. The operations for March, this year, have been largely for residences of modern type and modern cost. The three largest permits taken out were for the Conroy Beyer building, $40,000; the remodeling of the Noll building, $15,000; and the Freiberger residence, $20,000, and the Halfer residence, $11,000. A year ago there was one operation alone that almost equaled the total of these four and brought up the total to its high figure. The operations this spring indicate that the growth of Fort Wayne is steadily increasing and at a rapid rate and that there is an abundance of money for home-building.

AMBASSADOR PAGE HANDS NOTE TODAY

Washington, March 31.—Ambassador Page, at London, had before him today the American note to Great Britain regarding the order in council against commerce to and from Germany. The communication was called to him last night by the state department. It was expected the ambassador would present the note today when it will be made public simultaneously both in London and in Washington.

Pending the presentation of the communication officials refused to reveal its contents. It is known, however, that the American government stands firmly for its right to carry on legitimate trade with neutral countries, even though they be contiguous to the warring nations.

SAYS HE PUSHED HER ON HOT STOVE

Mother-in-Law Also Took a Hand in Violence, Says Mrs. Croxton.

Charging that her husband, on the 8th of last January, grabbed her and threw her against a hot stove and then struck her with a stove-lid which violence, resulted in severe hemorrhages and other bodily ills from which she still suffers, Irma M. Croxton has begun action in the circuit court against Walter E. Croxton for divorce. She also charges that her husband has never provided her with a home but has compelled her to reside with his mother, where she has been continually abused and insulted and by whom she was recently struck and choked while her husband stood by and made no effort to prevent or stop the assault. Mrs. Croxton further alleges that her husband does not sufficiently provide her with money and spends a large portion of what he earns in saloons and gambling rooms, besides neglecting all night. She demands $1,000 alimony and the custody of an infant child. They were married January 8, 1912, and separated March 30, 1915.

Says Wife Deserted. In a complaint for divorce filed in the superior court by John Hocker against Mary Hocker, the plaintiff sets out that they were married September 15, 1895, and alleges that she deserted him in 1912. The defendant is a non-resident of the state, according to an affidavit that accompanied the complaint.

Notes of the Courts. In the superior court a divorce has been granted to Iva Dempsey from Homer Dempsey. Neizer & Company have brought suit in the superior court against T. B. Woodward to collect $200 on account. Judgment for $125.26 was given the plaintiff in the case of George and Amelia Houser vs. Willard P. Smith by the circuit court.

CLOSE WAYNE TRACE THURSDAY.

The county commissioners announce that beginning Thursday morning Wayne traces will be closed to all traffic at its junction with the Pennsylvania road for the reason that the work of separating grades at that point will be inaugurated. It is advised by the commissioners that persons on the north side of the tracks and desiring to reach the south side of the tracks should go east on New Haven avenue to the Meyer road, one mile east of the city limits, where the tracks may be crossed, and then the Miller road may be taken. St. Andrew's church may be reached by New Haven avenue. People south of the tracks may come into the city by way of Pontiac street.

PREPARED FOR TAXPAYING.

It is stated by County Treasurer J. Herman Westendorf, that he and his office are now ready to receive the spring installment of taxes. The duplicates are prepared, accounts are indexed and those who go early will get better service than those who go later.

DEPUTY WESTENFELD HURT.

Herman Westendorf, deputy county recorder, is prevented from attending to his duties by reason of a badly injured finger that was crushed by a bowling ball.

TAX-JUMPER FEELS REMORSE.

A man now residing in Scott, Ohio, writes to County Treasurer J. H. Buerter to say that a few years ago he departed from Fort Wayne and left unpaid the taxes he owed the county. "God, in his wisdom, has shown me I did wrong, and if you will send me the bill I will pay it," penitently says the tax-jumper. The writer says the reason he did not pay was that he regarded his tax as a high and mighty right and a mistake had been made. He will be promptly furnished with a statement from the treasurer.

Stanley as counsel for the defendants. Redman also denied having any private conversations regarding the election with Mayor Roberts, another defendant. He also stated that although he had heard charges of irregularities in the preceding election, he paid no attention to the selection of election officials.

Mr. Dailey also asked about Redman's financial transactions and brought out that the defendant when he borrowed money from Shea brothers and others knew they were saloonkeepers and gambling house proprietors and that they might be called before him if he were elected judge. Redman said he thought it was all right.

The witness also said he saw accounts of charges of fraudulent registration laid to his party in the newspapers, but, although a candidate for judge he made no investigation. When Redman had left the stand the defense of Arthur Gillis, progressive clerk of the registration and election in precinct A of the Sixth ward was begun in charge of Finley H. Mount.

Joseph G. Elder, who previously had testified for the government was called as a character witness for Gillis. Mr. Mount did not limit his question prior to the present case, and the witness said Gillis's reputation was bad. Before Gillis was indicted, Elder said his reputation was good. The attorney said he was surprised at the first answer.

Winfield S. McCoy, who also had testified for the government, said Gillis's reputation was good but on cross examination admitted he had heard that "there might have been a deal between Gillis and Roberts as Gillis supported Roberts in the city election."

Charles E. Ryan, a Terre Haute undertaker, also said Gillis's reputation was good but he admitted that he had heard some things which the government considered derogatory to the defendant's character.

D. C. E. Lewis, chairman of the progressive county committee testified that he considered Gillis a bad character.

HARRISON HILL PLAT WILL BE APPROVED

Board, However, Wants a Few Changes in the Streets.

The plat for the Harrison Hill addition to Fort Wayne, a large new residential district being developed by Hilgemann & Schaaf, south of the city, will be approved by the board of works, but probably some changes in the streets will be asked by the board, notably Harrison street, which is regarded as of utmost importance.

Harrison Hill addition lies between Calhoun street and Fairfield avenue, and extends southward from Rudisill boulevard to McKinnerville. The plat tract consists of fifty-seven acres. It has been laid out with great ornateness of design and includes a great, almost circular street called Cornell circle. There is provision for a public park and playgrounds and reservations for small parks and extensive park strips.

Harrison street, from Rudisill to Lexington avenue, is made a boulevard with a series of central parkways each fifty feet wide and a drive 47½ feet wide on either side. At Lexington avenue Harrison street narrows from a boulevard with a total width of 145 feet to a narrow thoroughfare of thirty-seven feet, that pursues a tortuous course to the point where it intersects Cornell circle.

Mayor Hoesy and members of the board of works object much to the disposition made in the plat of Harrison street. Because it is the one great north and south artery that, with the completion of the Harrison street bridge, now under way, will traverse the city from rim to rim, it is thought that there should be no restriction of its width at any point and the proposed narrowing of it to a mere lane thirty-seven feet wide, laid out with reverse curves, is held to constitute a grave objection.

CHINESE-JAPANESE SITUATION SERIOUS

Peking, March 31.—In diplomatic circles the situation arising from Japanese negotiations of her demands upon China is regarded as more serious today than at any time since the conference to this end were inaugurated.

After further consultation between President Yuan Shi Kai and Foreign Minister Lu Cheng-Hsiang, the Chinese persist that they cannot accord absolute territoriality to Japanese immigrants in Manchuria and at the conference of yesterday Ploki, the Japanese minister, refused to discuss this question further. It is believed in Peking that the conference tomorrow will probably bring a break over this question which has lasted for a number of weeks. Failing to break the deadlock it is felt in some quarters Japan will present an ultimatum.

BIND CASHIER WITH ROPES AND ROB BANK

Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—Four men this afternoon entered the Hays National bank of Hays, near here, and binding Charles Ball, the teller, who was alone in the bank, with ropes, dragged him to a remote corner of the building. They then entered the vault, which was open, and taking about $5,000 in gold carried it to a waiting taxicab in the street and drove away.

Police officers of Homestead and a detail of county detectives from Pittsburg were hastily summoned by Ball, who had worked himself free of the ropes.

Grabner Wednesday morning. Mrs. Labrato pleaded not guilty, declaring she never used bad words, there being no words in her vocabulary. A trial followed and a number of witnesses were examined, the testimony being such that the justice justified in returning a verdict of guilty. She was fined $1 and costs.

Quincy, Mass., March 31.—After being formally christened the submarine L-4, built for the United States navy at the Fore river ship building corporation today. F VAOST IMPORTANCE.

Much Hange on Battles Raging in Carpathian Passes.

London, March 31.—The battle of the Carpathian passes now rivals the bombardment of the Dardanelles in political possibilities. German experts assert that the efforts being made by Russia are of such vital importance politically that the supreme command of the Teutonic allies is justified in exerting every effort to check the invader there.

According to this view of the situation a sudden and dramatic influx of Muscovite hosts through the Carpathians into Hungary might stir the Balkan nation to action long before the tedious attack of the allied fleet on the Dardanelles attains anything approaching a definite result. Petrograd has officially warned the Russian people not to expect an early capitulation of Constantinople. There are no signs, however, that the allied fleet has given up the attack as battleships are again shelling the outer defenses of the straits while the Russian assault on the Bosphorus has merely been interrupted by a thick fog.

Train Guns on Verdun. On the western front the Germans are reported to be giving up their plans for breaking through the defenses of the allies along the Meuse. They are making a new effort along the fortified French-German border by bombarding the fortress of Verdun.

Internally England is still concerned with the labor and drink situation. The Liverpool dockers show no indication of receding from their demands. Commercial bodies are coming forward with offers to back the government in drastic action against the drink evil, while the liquor interests are beginning to express fear of severe government regulation.

Sunk by Submarine U-28. It has now been definitely established that the British freighter Flaminian was sunk by the German submarine U-28.

The Flaminian sighted the U-28 at 1:15 o'clock Monday afternoon. The crew at once prepared to lower the boats, and at the same time the vessel was sent ahead at full speed. The submarine easily overhauled her, however, and fired three shots, signalling her to stop.

The Flaminian was stopped and the crew, abandoning all personal belongings, got off in small boats. The submarine then fired ten shots at the steamer.

These appeared to be ineffective and accordingly a torpedo was discharged. This sent the Flaminian to the bottom.

One week after falling from his bicycle as he was going home, Walter Lochner, assistant secretary of the Commercial club, finds that he has a broken bone in his right arm. At first the attending physician thought it was nothing more serious than a sprain. The arm caused him so much pain, however, that Wednesday morning another examination was made when it was discovered that one of the bones had been broken.

Luke 22:54-71.

54 When they took him and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

Tax Loss in the "Dry Wave"

Shrinkage of more than two million dollars per year in the government revenues from the internal revenue tax on whisky, with the prospect that there will be a still further falling off is reported from Washington as one of the sequences of the "dry" wave which has been making notable progress in America during the past two years. It is explained, also, that this has materially contributed to the treasury deficit which now confronts the country. Nine states from which the government derives a total revenue of more than $5,000,000 from spirits and liquors—Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Oregon, Virginia, Washington, Iowa and Arizona—will join the "dry" ranks within the next year.

When the Hobson resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for nation-wide prohibition was under discussion in the house during the last session of congress, the liquor people laid great stress on the amount of money that would be lost by the federal government if the tax on liquor was eliminated from its revenues by the banishment of the traffic. This has always been an argument on which emphasis has been laid by the liquor men, and it has doubtless had its effect in retarding the progress of temperance. But the other side of the proposition was recently set forth in a statement by Secretary Bryan that about $2,500,000,000 is spent annually in this country for liquor. The diversion of this vast sum into more wholesome channels of trade should easily make possible the wiping out of the lost revenues from liquor taxes when there comes the readjustment of revenue-raising that is clearly going to be necessary in this country.

Women watchers are to be stationed at the New Jersey polls when the equal suffrage amendment comes up for approval or rejection in September. Denying the intent to either be unduly suspicious or to make invidious comparisons, the New Jersey ladies plainly do not propose to take any unnecessary chances with victory so nearly won.

The mystery surrounding the resignation of Representative Feick, of Garrett, from his seat in the legislature was quickly dispelled by announcement of his appointment as a deputy oil inspector for the Twelfth district. Those who feared that Mr. Feick had been invidious enough to fail to provide a place on which to alight when he jumped need have no further alarm. He has landed on his feet.

'Twas ever thus. With the western railroads contending that they must have an advance in freight rates in order to survive, and the western shippers who furnish most of the business insisting that the roads are already earning from 6 to 16 per cent. net, it is about time for the peace commission to tender its good offices in intervention.

County Treasurer Bueter is in receipt of a letter from an Ohio man who says that some years ago he left Fort Wayne with his taxes unpaid; that he is now convinced of his wrong-doing and is anxious to make amends by a settlement of the bill. Splendid; but it must be admitted that the delinquent lists indicate that a vast majority of those in the same category are still unregenerate and unmoved.

Having been released from jail because authorities were unable to make a case against him, Percy A. George, high priest and "apostle" of the "love cult" at Alliance, will now make a tour of Ohio in the interest of his freakish propaganda. We presume Ohio will be willing to stand it if the apostle will refrain from going on the vaudeville stage or breaking into the movies.

Despite the eccentricities of the temperature, spring is here. The last possible doubt has been removed by the issuing of the Central League baseball schedule for the season.

WAR PREDICTIONS.

(Pittsburgh Dispatch).

There are about as many opinions as to when the war will end and the outcome as there are about how it was started. And the financial and military experts are no more agreed than the men in the street. One of the leading bankers of New York scoffed a day or two ago at Lloyd George's theory of the last million deciding the war. This was not a ridiculous statement, as he said a shortage of money was backing the war.

Impossible so long as the supply of paper and printing presses held out. The very next day another authority, one of America's greatest railroad kings, said he looked for an early termination of the struggle because the nations were exhausting themselves. But the most remarkable opinion of all is that ascribed to a New York financier, quoted by the Herald, who was asked if the Wall Street "bulls" were not ridiculously incompetent in backing the war. This was not a ridiculous statement, as he said a shortage of money was backing the war.

that the war will be protracted and the next day on the contrary belief that it will soon be ended. His reply was that both positions were justified. If the war continues this country will keep on supplying munitions of war, foodstuffs and products, which have given us our record balance of trade. On the other hand, an early peace would create demands for constructive materials in even greater quantities than the destructive materials we are now shipping.

That very plausible explanation removed the seeming contradiction. The optimism that seemed so contradictory applied to the war is not when applied to this country. These boosters are simply "bulls" on the United States. It is a significant and encouraging sign of the trend. The experts and the non-experts may know nothing whatever about when the war will end or what will end it, but when it comes down to a plain business proposition all agree that the United States is "the one best bet."

THE COMMON LAW.

(Kansas City Star.)

Reciting an injustice of the law of New York (and of many other states) touching the restricted rights of married women, Dr. Frank Crane says:

"Common law, which is merely ancient custom, rules except where altered by statute."

Or except where altered by judicial declaration.

For common law itself was what certain judges or magistrates, or a certain judge or magistrate, declared the custom to be.

And the common law, as it is basic in our law today, was not merely the ancient customs of one period; it was and is a growth of centuries, and it has not quit growing yet.

The common law is and always has been a kind of gigantic fiction, being the judge-made law imposed upon people without their knowledge and assent.

And today, for example, you will find the lawyer, Judge Alton Brooks Parker, saying that the common law affords all the necessary relief from trusts, and the lawyer, Senator LaFollette, saying that it does not.

As we know, even a written constitution affords the widest latitude to different courts in declaring it, or interpreting it. One court will say that a certain principle embodied in a statute is unconstitutional; another will say that the same principle is constitutional. So we can see from that how judges and courts differed, or grew, in giving form to the mere vague idea of custom.

There is a common law for railroads—which is simply the opinion (or the varying opinions) of modern judges concerning their idea of Twelfth century customs should be applied to Nineteenth and Twentieth century facts. Those "common law rules" of master and servant, which have made workmen's compensation statutes so essential, are rooted in the decisions of judges of the last two hundred years.

The common law did take and has taken a certain (or uncertain) definiteness of form at all times. But the great body of our unwritten, judge-made law would be as unfamiliar and as sensationally unrecognizable to Alfred the Great as a locomotive engine, an aeroplane or a submarine.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good way to gain weight. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction, and best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Mayer Bros. Drug Co., Drexler Drug Co. and D. N. Pharmacy and other leading druggists in Fort Wayne and vicinity sell it in large bottles—forty tablets, for a package or a dozen at a time.

BABY BOY MEETS A HORRIBLE DEATH

Life Strangled Out of Him When Feet Slip and Head is Caught in Bars of Gate in Wells County.

Bluffton, Ind., March 31.—With life extinct from strangulation, Harvey Tschanen, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Tschanen, was found hanging with his head caught between the bars of a gate at the farm home of the Tschanen family, four miles east of Bluffton, near the Little school house. The death of the child was plainly accidental. He had hanged upon the gate, stuck his head through the bars and then his feet slipped, his head had been caught between the bars and he had slowly strangled to death, powerless to call for help, to his father, working about the barn, not more than 100 feet distant, or to brothers and sister who were at play in another part of the barn lot.

Dr. J. C. Fulton, of this city, was called to the Tschanen home as quickly as possible after the body of the child was discovered hanging in the gate, and he hurried to the scene in his automobile, but he could render no aid, and he said that there was no doubt but that life was extinct when the child was found.

GEORGE SATTISON IS DEAD.

Columbia City, Ind., March 31.—George Sattison died at his home in this city Tuesday of Bright's disease and other complications.

The deceased was born in Troy township, and was reared there and lived there until about four years ago, when he gave up active farm life and moved to this city. He was the son of Jonathan and Mary Sattison and was born Nov. 5, 1844. On November 10, 1872, he was united in marriage to Samantha Bordner, and one child was born to them, which died in infancy. The death of his first wife occurred on July 11th, four years ago, and in 1913, October 18th, he was again married to Martha E. Coyle, who survives.

WELLS COUNTY FARMER DIES.

Bluffton, Ind., March 31.—Jonathan Brickley, aged 81, one of the pioneer farmers of Union township, passed away Tuesday at his home at Uniondale. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis, sustained last Friday. He was working about the barn on his premises at Uniondale and fell unconscious in the stall beside one of his horses. Mr. Brickley was born on January 19, 1834, in Trumbull county, O., and came to Wells county at the age of twenty-one. Later in life his father, David Brickley, came from Ohio to make his home with his son here, but when Mr. Brickley moved here he came alone, a young man seeking his fortune in a new country. Mr. Brickley was married fifty-four years ago to Miss Gelana Milligan. She, with ten of the twelve children born to them, survives.

SEEK WOMAN'S ASSAILANT.

Warsaw, Ind., March 31.—Police officers are still on the hunt for the unknown assailant who on last Thursday night assaulted Mrs. Homer Longfellow near her home at Pierceton. The prolonged disappearance of a local Pierce character and the discovery of abandoned man's wearing apparel along the railroad tracks, where the would-be robber is supposed to have changed his disguise, are clues being followed in the search. Mrs. Longfellow was assaulted about 9 o'clock on Thursday night while on her way home. The man struck her and attempted to choke her into insensibility. Her screams and the arrival of her mother upon the scene frightened the man away and he escaped.

HUNTINGTON WOMAN DEAD.

Huntington, Ind., March 31.—Mrs. John Hower, sixty-four years old, died at her home here, death resulting from a stroke of creeping paralysis which attacked her about three weeks ago. Mrs. Hower was born in Starke county, Ohio, July 7, 1850. Her parents were Martha and William Smith. She married John Hower August 16, 1874, to which union there were five children born. Four children survive with the husband.

TRYING TO GET GRAVEL ROADS.

Columbia City, Ind., March 31.—A petition is now being circulated among freeholders in Columbia township for their signatures favoring the graveling of about eight miles of roads leading into the city of Columbia City. The petition needed about fifty signatures, but there are now over two hundred and fifty signatures, it is said, so there is no question but that after the petitions are filed before the county commissioners that they will order an election to let the voters of the township decide whether they want the improvements made or whether they are against the building of the proposed gravel roads. There are five roads grouped under one name and they amount to about eight miles of road in all.

ALBION PIONEER DIES.

Albion, Ind., March 31.—Mrs. Martha Prickett, a pioneer resident of Noble county, is dead at her home in Albion. She had been ill for some time and death was the result of senility. Mrs. Prickett was the daughter of Col. John Jackson, a resident of Elkhart county, who was one of the early fighters in the Indian wars. She had been a resident of Noble county for sixty years and was the widow of Fielding Prickett, a prominent lawyer who died in 1888. She was over 83 years of age and was a remarkable woman, retaining her mental faculties to the end. Previous to her last illness she had been very active. She was the mother of one daughter, deceased, first wife of Judge L. H. Wrigley.

CRAZED BY USE OF MORPHINE.

Lagrange, Ind., March 31.—An insanity commission consisting of Drs. Hostetter and Rozelle and Justice Minnick convened Tuesday afternoon and found Harley Edwin Betts, aged 50 years, mentally unbalanced due to the use of morphine and application has been made for his admission to Easthaven asylum where it is expected proper care and treatment will restore him to his normal condition. Mr. Betts was for a number of years a nurse at the Kalamazoo asylum where, it is claimed, he incurred the drug habit.

CHILD DIES OF BURNS.

Decatur, Ind., March 31.—The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins, of Monroe township, was so badly burned Tuesday that he died at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The boy was in the orchard playing with matches and building bonfires. His clothing caught fire, and before he could be reached and the flames extinguished he was so badly burned that death came at 2 o'clock. The Hawkins home is on St. Paul's church, three miles east and a mile south of Monroe. No further particulars of the terrible accident could be learned, nor the time for the funeral.

ONION FEST TO LAST WEEK.

Columbia City, Ind., March 31.—The men in charge of the onion carnival at Wolf Lake have decided to give one week of celebration this year instead of the two days which has been their custom in past years. They expect to have an aviator on hand to entertain the crowd from time to time, and many other interesting features. Nothing has been given out as to what Collins will do this year, but it is probable that they will not let Wolf Lake outstrip them in their onion show.

COUNTY S. S. CONVENTION.

Van Wert, O., March 31.—The Van Wert County Sunday School association will hold a county convention at Van Wert, on Sunday, June 6. The object of holding the convention on Sunday is to give to the business man and farmer an opportunity to attend. While the program has not been made, it is certain that Dr. J. D. Darling, the new state secretary, and M. G. Bailey, who has taken so much interest in the boys' congress, will be on the program. Three sessions will be held in the afternoon, at the same time, and at three different churches, while a union meeting will be held in the evening.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you have used your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You cannot wash a group of soft black hair with it and draw down a line of gray between the gray and black hair.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help nature very much and thereby enable it to do its work in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucous and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. AT THE COLONIAL

"ARE THEY BORN OR MADE?"

Colonial Has Singular Feature in Powerful Morality Drama.

After viewing this remarkable picture, "Are They Born or Made?" Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the famous poetess and moralist, declared it one of the most intensely interesting photoplays that she had ever witnessed, and she was so enthusiastic about possibilities of the film as a means of educating the youth of America up to true manhood by depicting on the screen the terrible results of wrong doing, that she impudently various authorities in different cities to show the photoplay to young men, and have them profit thereby.

The story of the picture is revealed in interesting and many times thrilling fashion, and withal it is a play that will not only educate, but it will grip and hold the emotions.

AT THE NEW PALACE

FESTIVAL IS RIGHT.

Keith's Spring Feature Bill Winner at New Palace.

"Festival is right," in describing the current bill of the Keith New Palace, as the program is the happiest selection of amusement hits of the season. The twelve act fun-feature provides a menu of entertainment of a variety wide enough to tempt the palate of the most blasé. Mme. Adelaide Herrmann will afford you something to wonder about for weeks, as she presents a score of the tricks and illusions that made her late husband great, and closes a gorgeously set attraction with a mystifying illusion called "The Sleeping Beauty" in which she causes a beautiful girl to be suspended in a group of artistic poses without any evident physical support. The real laugh hit of the festival is "The Belle of Bingville," the absurd skit in which Fred Whitfield and Marie Ireland, assisted by Murdock, are appearing. Miss Ireland, as the village belle, has a character role that is immense and her canny answers to questions put to her by Whitfield kept the house in convulsive laughter, while her burlesque society dancing is a riot.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

"THE COMMANDING OFFICER."

Wissone Alice Dovey, Famous Actress, at Jefferson in Famous Players' Drama.

One of the strongest feature dramas of recent times is this five part adaptation of Theodore Burt Sayre's noted military drama, "The Commanding Officer." Alice Dovey, the beautiful young actress, who scored such fine success in Herbert's late opera, "Papa Darling," is seen in the principle role of the piece and she receives the able assistance of such co-stars as Donald Crisp, Russell Bassett, Olive Johnson, Ethel Phillips, Jack Pickford and Marshall Neilan.

Produced in California under the direction of Allan Dwan, the photoplay is further enriched by the broad sweeping backgrounds that are both charming and utterly spectacular in the action of the story.

TO RAISE ILL-FATED WARSHIP AT ANY COST

Daniels is Determined to Bring Sunken Submarine F-4 to Surface.

Washington, March 31.—Secretary Daniels was determined today to raise the sunken submarine F-4 in Honolulu harbor, no matter what the operation may cost. He wants to learn the cause of the accident so as to avoid similar disasters in the future.

This was made known after advice had been received from Rear Admiral Moore, at Honolulu, which said that preparations were being made to raise the submarine by the pontoon method. The fact that the admiral reported the submarine evidently was waterlogged and therefore too heavy to be raised by the equipment previously employed, banished the hopes of officials that any of her crew might be found alive.

Secretary Daniels announced that in event of failure of efforts now being made to raise the submarine the navy department would send the necessary equipment to raise her. He said there was no truth in reports that he was dissatisfied with the work of naval authorities at Honolulu. On the contrary the secretary said they were doing everything possible to raise the submarine.

GRAPNEL CABLES SNAP.

Honolulu, March 31.—Grapple cables charged to a heavy object believed to be the lost submarine F-4, parted last night. The spot was carefully marked and it was announced another attempt would be made today to grapple the object. A huge diving tube, which engineers have been hastily constructing, was completed last night. It was submerged 35 feet and was left in the harbor until morning in order to test its stability.

The city has been scoured to obtain 700 feet of reinforced hose to be used for air tubes. Twenty-one coffins have been delivered at the navy dock for the ill-fated crew of the F-4.

WATERWAY MEETING HELD AT HUNTINGTON

Local Speakers on Program With Secretary Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Another enthusiastic waterway meeting was held Tuesday evening at Huntington at which time Hon. S. A. Thompson, secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, was the principal speaker. Perry A. Randall, of this city, also spoke, taking for his subject, "Dreams That Come True."

A banquet preceded the meeting in the Commercial club rooms, Judge Samuel E. Cook, presiding as toastmaster. J. W. Caswell, head of the Caswell-Kunze company, and a director in the Erie and Michigan Deep Waterway association, was the first speaker. He welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city and the Commercial club and said the gates were always open to those who wish to enter and boost the canal. Captain L. H. Watkins, in charge of the survey for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago canal, spoke on the subject, "A Project." His talk dealt particularly with what has been done in making the survey during the past fifteen months. He said he had no doubt that plenty of water can be found for the canal.

Mr. Randall admitted that he was a dreamer, but that the dream he has been having regarding a canal connecting the great lakes is soon to be realized.

Must Push Together. Mr. Thompson's address was practically the same that he delivered in Fort Wayne Monday evening. "The greatest thing the people of northern Indiana can do for the upbuilding of their city—the best thing you people of Huntington can do for the upbuilding of your city—is to push together until the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago canal is in operation," he said. "We need good roads in this country, we need good waterways and we need economical transportation and with the waterway the economical transportation will come."

ESTABLISHES HOME FOR NEWSPAPER MEN

New York, March 31.—John Brisbane Walker, formerly a magazine publisher here, now retired to his Colorado estate, announced through the Editor and Publisher today an offer to give a site of forty acres at Mount Morrison, Colo., to establish a home for newspaper men. Mr. Walker stated that he had reached the decision to offer the gift after conferences with New York journalists.

In his announcement Mr. Walker declared that although no profession makes more serious demands upon the health of its members than that of journalism, no attempt has been made up to this time to establish a country home where those who have given their best efforts to the press may find a retreat in the event of a temporary or permanent breakdown.

RUSSIANS AGAIN BATTLE FOR PASS

London, March 31.—After a brief lull in the fight for possession of Dukla Pass in the Carpathians the Russians have brought up reinforcements and resumed the attack.

At Vienna it is said that the Russians have not been able to gain their objective at any point along the Carpathian front for the invasion of Hungary, and that they were defeated in Bukovina yesterday. Dispatches to Swiss newspapers, however, say the Austrians have suffered enormous losses in eastern Hungary. It is estimated they lost 13,000 men on Monday and the Russians are credited with annihilating a column of 4,000 Austrians in an hour.

The increasing pressure of the Russians on this front together with the fall of Przemyśl, may have an influence on the operations in the west. The report is being spread in Holland that the Germans are contemplating the abandonment of their present line in Belgium in favor of a less extended front running slightly west of Brussels, and that withdrawal of German cavalry from the Yser line already has begun.

A Russian victory in the campaign against Turkey is announced from the headquarters of the Caucasian army. In the fighting in Turkish Armenia along the coast of the Black sea, the Russians captured the town of Artvin. German warships have again bombarded the Russian port of Libau, on the Baltic. Three persons were killed during two attacks.

A Reuters dispatch received from Constantinople by way of Berlin says the allied fleet has resumed its bombardment of villages near the outer forts of the Dardanelles. Turkish aviators are making daily reconnaissance.

FLAMINIAN'S CREW SAVED.

British Freighter is Sent Down by German Submarine.

London, March 31.—(1:12 p. m.)—The Ellerman line steamer Flaminian, with a general cargo, from Glasgow to Liverpool, was sunk off the Scilly Isles Monday, March 29, presumably by a German submarine. The members of the crew were saved.

The Flaminian was of 2,218 net tons. Shipping records located her at London on March 3. This is the same vessel that was reported sunk last night. Her name was not then known. She had no passengers on board. Her crew of 39 men took to their boats and were picked up by the Danish steamer Finlandia and landed at Holyhead this morning.

LADIES' AUXILIARY IS TO BE ORGANIZED

At a meeting of Company D, Third infantry, next Friday evening, steps will be taken for the organization of a ladies' auxiliary. On that evening members of the company will entertain their wives, mothers, sweethearts and sisters, all of whom will be eligible to membership in the new organization. In years gone by there was an auxiliary and the women were found invaluable in many ways. They often gave bazaars, fairs, entertainments, suppers and various social gatherings for the benefit of the militia. At the meeting Friday refreshments will be served and a general good time will be enjoyed.

During the summer months the company will hold outings and week-end camps at stated intervals in places easily accessible to the public. Beginning Wednesday night, there will be rifle practice on the indoor range every week.

TRADE CONDITIONS ARE MUCH IMPROVED

Business conditions continue to improve, though slowly, according to the general letter on trade conditions issued for the month of April by the Old National bank. The letter says in part: "Our condition was had enough before the outbreak of hostilities in Europe, which, temporarily at least, multiplied our business handicaps. Within sixty days, however, after the beginning of the war, a slight improvement was noticeable and, slow though it may be, that improvement has steadily gone forward. Hindrances to shipping, rumors of other countries being drawn into the European conflict, fear of a climax in our Mexican diplomatic negotiations and a general feeling of uncertainty—these things make business men cautious, but expansion is taking place, more men are being put to work in the mills resume, and the erection and extension of factories has started."

AN OLD TIME PRINTER OF FORT WAYNE DIES

I. W. Campbell Passes Away at Spokane, Wash., at Age of 81 Years.

I. W. Campbell, an old-time printer of Fort Wayne, died recently at the home of his daughter in Spokane, Wash., at the advanced age of eighty-one years. Mr. Campbell, who was born in Catawissa, Pa., and learned his printer's trade in Bloomington, came to Fort Wayne many years ago and worked for John Dawson, who then owned the Fort Wayne Sentinel.

A few years later he became deputy sheriff of Allen county and was also in the auditor's office of this county for several years. Many of the pioneer residents of this city can well remember him.

He moved from this city to St. Louis in 1888 and remained there until four years ago, when his wife passed away. He then went to Spokane, Wash., where he made his home with his daughter, Miss Edith Campbell. Besides his daughter, he is survived by one son, I. W. Campbell, Jr., of Portland, Ore. Mrs. E. G. Pierce, of East Lewis street, this city, is the only surviving sister.

The body will be shipped to St. Louis where it will be placed beside the grave of his wife.

LIGONIER DOCTOR GUILTY, SAYS JURY

White Slave Charge at Chicago.

Chicago, March 31.—Dr. Louis P. Wineburg, a physician of Ligonier, Ind., was found guilty last night of violation of the Mann "white slave" act. He was convicted of having transported Belle Locher, 16 years old, to Chicago for immoral purposes.

Federal Judge Carpenter advised the jury that it had no concern with the motives of congress in enacting the law. "The law is to be considered as it stands," he said, "regardless of the general opinion that it was aimed at the commercial traffic in women."

The government contended that Wineburg, while ostensibly treating Miss Locher as a physician, induced her to go to Kalamazoo, where he joined her, and then brought her to Chicago, registering at the Great Northern hotel as husband and wife. Both Dr. Wineburg and the girl were mercilessly assailed by opposing attorneys in their arguments.

Miss Locher sobbed throughout the argument. When it was finished she was taken into the corridor by her sister Lauretta, in fear that she would be overcome. Across the room sat the wife and two small girls of the physician. Mrs. Wineburg seemed unaffected by the address of the government's attorney. She held her daughters close to her and gazed in an absent-minded way at her husband who sat between his lawyers. The little girls played with the broad ribbon sashes about their waists, unmindful of what was going on about them.

The girl's father and mother and Lauretta were placed on the stand and testified that allegations of the doctor as to a certain unhappy incident in the life of Grace Belle, in the winter of 1912, are false. Miss Locher took the stand and denied the doctor's accusation.

FRIARS RETAIN THE CHAMPIONSHIP CUP

Win Over the Lyceum Feds in Most Sensational Finish.

All hail to the Friars, city champions of 1915, and perpetual possessors of the coveted Shield trophy! They turned the trick last night at Concordia gym with a sensational finish over the Lyceum Feds, who, during the first half, seemed to have come back. The game was a thriller from start to finish, and although the south side basketballers led almost from the start of the game, the Friars never lost heart and when their chance came they all pulled together and capped off the highest honors. Lots of Lyceum money was lying around loose during the intermission and a few canny Friar partisans gathered it in and as a result several well known citizens of the south part of town were compelled to hoof it home. The cup defenders were way behind at the end of the first period and up to that time had scored only once from the field. The Feds had been coming strong and it looked as if they would win handily. From the first tapoff the Friars discovered they did not have the easy team to deal with that they were up against last Thursday. The addition of Miller, who has recovered from his sickness, strengthened the Fed lineup and transformed it from the crudely working organization of a few days ago into the smooth running machine that opened their season.

For some little while after the opening no goal was scored but someone left Miller uncovered and he registered. Flabarty replied with another shortly after. Gerberding was given a chance to show what he was and he demonstrated it by a free throw. Some time later he scored from the field and then got another chance which he negotiated successfully. No more scoring was done on either side and the half closed 7 to 4 in the Lyceum's favor. Probably too much guarding was the cause for the low score at the half way point, for each man stuck to his opponent like glue and very few chances to score were given.

After some five minutes of hard floor work Leos dropped one in from under the basket. Stroup's long goal from the field, however, brought the Lyceum's lead down to three again. A foul goal by Miller and two from the field by Stroup and Gerberding tied the score at 10 to 10 and then the fans did sure whoop'er up. A goal apiece and then an easy one by Gerberding put the Friars ahead for the first time of the game. Miller tied again but two in a row by Stroup and one by Kennedy after he had tried a couple of times put the game on ice for the cup defenders and then the time was up. The final count showed the Friars winners at 20-14.

Stroup has most of the glory coming to him for the way that he won the game for the Friar five. His goals all came at opportune times and his shooting was for the most part remarkably accurate. Miller played him a close second for honors, and although his recent illness possibly slowed him down considerably, he was always at the bottom of all the mix-ups. The lineup and score:

Friars, 20:	Lyceum, 14:
Stroup	F. Miller
Gerberding	F. Flabarty
McMurray	G. Leos
Kennedy	G. Brown
Dietrich	G. Blee
Field goals—Stroup, 4; Gerberding, 4; Kennedy, 1; Miller, 2; Flabarty, 2; Leos, 1. Free throws—Gerberding, 2; Miller, 2. Referee—Witte.

Billy Sunday's Holy Week Revival Sermons for Fort Wayne

I am an old-fashioned preacher of the old-time religion that has warmed this cold world's heart for two thousand years.—Billy Sunday.

Billy Sunday's Third Holy Week Revival Sermon—Subject: "The Inner Wall"

BY REV. BILLY SUNDAY.

(Copyright, 1915, by the Newspaper Enterprise association.)

"For this cause I bow my knee unto the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, that He would grant you to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man."—Ephesians III:16.

The pages of ancient history tell of a certain Dutch city bombarded by the Spaniards. The city was surrounded by a great wall which gave the Dutch inhabitants a sense of security; and against this wall the Spaniards hurled their battering rams in persistent assault. Finally, to the consternation of the Dutch, the wall showed signs of breaking. The Dutch decided to erect another wall inside of the one which was weakening. They laid the foundation deeper, built it wider than the outer wall and just as the last brick was laid upon it the outer wall gave way. Through a breach in this outer wall the swarthy Spaniards rushed, but they were stopped by the inner wall; their battering rams fell to no avail; the inner wall was impregnable.

Now it is the business of Christianity to erect in the inner life of the individual a wall which will render that individual safe from the assaults of the enemies of the soul.

We live our life in the enemy's country—we are constantly surrounded by enemies to our well-being.

Organized society has seen that the individual is surrounded by these enemies and has built around the individual certain outer walls to protect him from them.

Some of these walls are: The wall of legislation which has great protective power and is one of the things which distinguishes civilization from savagery.

2. Education—Organized society has seen that ignorance is soil in which seeds of badness grow with alarming rapidity, so it has set about the erection of a wall of education around the individual.

All things being equal the educated man should be better able to protect himself against the enemies of the body, the mind and the soul and the individual is much safer when surrounded by the outer wall of education.

3. The Home—Organized society has seen that the influence of wife and children is one of the most wholesome influences of life. The stability of society, virtue of womanhood and honor of manhood depends upon the development of a good home life.

Now I feel like taking off my hat to organized society for the real service it has rendered the cause of religion by erecting these outer walls of legislation, education and home; but there is no one who does not know that there are exigencies in life when no one nor all of these walls can render the individual safe.

And I want now to pay a tribute to that one inner wall of genuine Christian character which will stand when all these outer walls have crumbled into dust.

If every man in America was a genuine Christian we could turn our swords into plowing hooks, our bayonets into ploughshares, sink our battle-ships, spike our guns and hang a "For Rent" sign over every brewery, over every saloon, and houses of shame would become houses of virtue.

No one of these walls, nor all, without the inner wall of Christianity, can render the nation, or the individual, safe from the enemies which attack us on all sides, but the inner wall of the religion of Jesus Christ can protect him even though every other wall be torn down.

On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake my sure repose?
By Salvation's walls surrounded,
I can laugh at all my foes!

Tomorrow's sermon in the Daily Sentinel's revival, conducted by Billy Sunday, is a wonderful discourse. You can't afford to miss it. The subject is: "WHO WAS JESUS?"

NO ACTION TAKEN ON CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

On the theory that a co-operative store such as is to be established in Fort Wayne will not hurt their business, members of the Retail Merchants' association took no action Tuesday evening at a special session held in the Commercial club.

The meeting was devoted chiefly to a discussion of the laws passed by the last legislature. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the officers of the Indianapolis association for information regarding the methods employed there to enforce the fake advertising bill. President Mills reported that the national association is doing splendid work in suppressing the coupon-profit-sharing game.

Frank J. Rahe, of the Foster Furniture company, gave an interesting talk on his visit to the west and to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

TAX ASSESSORS "FIRED"

Governor Willis, of Ohio, Makes Wholesale Dismissals.

Columbus, Ohio, March 31.—In order to place the taxing machinery of Ohio in the hands of officials sympathetic with the state administration, Governor Frank B. Willis last night directed the state tax commission to dismiss 102 district tax assessors, 88 of whom are democrats, and announced that he would at once name their successors.

The governor's announcement came immediately after the lower house of the legislature had killed the Beiler bill, which would have given county auditors authority to make up this year's tax duplicate.

The governor's action was prompted, he said, by the fact that the majority party in Ohio has substantially no representation in the taxing machinery of the state and reports that democratic taxing officials intended to resign at critical times during the assessment period in order to embarrass the administration.

Salaries of the removed officials range from $1,500 to $5,000 a year, according to the population of the county in which they have jurisdiction.

TANGLE ENSUES OVER 'PHONE FIRE ALARM

A tangle over a fire alarm by telephone occurred at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening when a telephone alarm of a blaze in the Tarletz shirtwaist factory at 214-216 East Main street. A fire started in a heap of shirtwaist boxes and someone called the department by telephone. Engine companies 1, 3 and 4 responded, and after a few minutes when the blaze was not discovered, someone thought that there probably had been a mistake in getting the telephone message, and sent the department sky-hooting to East Wayne street. It was a happy thing for the horses that there were no more suggestions, and the department returned to its original place. Here Fireman Charles Trece located the blaze and the fire was extinguished with a small chemical line. The loss was slight.

Another Slight Fire.
About an hour later the inefficiency of the telephone alarm again demonstrated when a telephone call to the home of Joseph Doepker, 322 Madison street, was turned in. Before the telephone man at headquarters had an opportunity to get things squared away for the run the box a square from the fire was pulled, and the engine companies responded to that alarm before the complex telephone system was placed in operation. The fire at this place started from sparks from a chimney and burned a big hole in the roof. The firemen had to cut a hole in the plaster to get at the blaze, and Chief Hiltbrecht estimated the loss at at least $150. It was Assistant Chief George Jasper's day off duty and Chief Hiltbrecht answered all alarms yesterday.

ISSUE CALL FOR PRAYERS.

New York, March 31.—The federal council of the Churches of Christ in America which recently tabulated statistics of the churches showing an unusual gain in membership during the last year, has issued through its commission on evangelism a call to prayer for a worldwide revival, urging the churches not to be satisfied with the gains of the year.

The call which is signed by Dr. William H. Roberts and Dr. W. E. Biederdorf, chairman and secretary, respectively, of the commission on evangelism, as well as by Professor Shailer Mathews, president of the federal council, who has just returned from a mission of good will in Japan, and by Dr. Charles S. MacFarland, general secretary of the council, claimed that the spiritual advance of the church has always been marked by revivals.

SECRETARY CASH
TO HAVE ASSISTANT

Board of Management Appoints Myrl L. Vance,
Who Takes Office April 1.

The board of management of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. has decided to give Secretary A. J. Cash an assistant, and the appointment has fallen upon Myrl L. Vance, who arrived in the city today and will assume the duties of the office April 1. Mr. Vance is a native of Logansport, where he graduated from the high school and later served two or three years as a clerk in the office of Master Mechanic F. V. McDonnell, of the Panhandle. About a year ago Mr. Vance went to South Bend to take a position as time clerk in the Studebaker works, from which he resigned to come here to take the office of assistant to Secretary Cash. The young man is a member of the Christian church of Logansport and has taken a great interest in Y. M. C. A. work both at Logansport and at South Bend.

The rapid growth of the local Railroad Y. M. C. A., under Secretary Cash's direction and a determination to expand the work in every conceivable manner were factors in bringing the board to a realization of the necessity for an assistant secretary.

When Mr. Cash took hold of the secretaryship, December 1, the membership was 265. Three months later, on March 1, it was 432, and April 1 it will have reached approximately 450. An effort is to be made to carry the number up to 1,000 by January 1, 1936. With this end in view, the association rooms are to be made more attractive. The opera chairs in the auditorium are to be removed and collapsible chairs and tables provided so the room can be used for holding banquets and the directors' room in the rear of the auditorium is to be transformed into a kitchenette and equipped with culinary implements and apparatus for preparing the viands for banquet purposes. The vacant lot south of the Y. M. C. A. building is being filled up with a view of making grounds for holding outdoor meetings whenever desired and for hand-ball purposes for the membership. A number of improvements in the interior of the building including the installation of an up-to-date water heater, new rocking chairs, settees and other furniture in the reading room—have already been made and the walls and ceilings have been repainted and redecorated, giving the place a much more inviting appearance than it presented for several years. Secretary Cash intends to keep up the work among the shopmen of the city, holding noon-day meetings and in other ways. Among the innovations to be made in this work will be the introduction of moving pictures. This feature may not be put into service before next fall, but Mr. Cash has the assurance of the approval of the board when the time for installing the apparatus arrives.

WILLARD STOCK IS RISING AT HAVANA

Plenty of Money Offered on Johnson, But at Much Shorter Odds.

Havana, March 31.—Arrangements have been completed for affording police protection for the crowds during the Johnson-Willard fight next Monday. The race-track and Havana street leading to stations of the electric line to the track will be patrolled by a double force. The mayor of Matanzas, where the fight is situated, made arrangements with Colonel Meris, secretary of the interior, for guarding all parts of the track and ring with police in addition to which regular troops will be held in reserve nearby. The railway company is arranging a fast service from the center of the city to the track, using electric cars on this line and on the line from nearby towns.

Sentiment in favor of Willard seems to be increasing rapidly and is affecting the betting odds. Plenty of money is still being offered on Johnson but at shorter odds. Speculations now are generally less than 3 to 1. Willard backers are holding off in the hope of getting the better price of 1 to 1. Johnson are being bought on the line from nearby towns.

of his age, and he finds it a constant struggle to deny himself water.

It is now evident that Johnson will go into the ring heavier than in any previous fight, probably at 220 or 235 pounds. Otherwise he appears to be in fine condition. Nevertheless doubt is expressed, quite generally that he can go no more than half the forty-rounds. His best chance appears to be to beat down Willard during the first fifteen rounds. Willard is likely to attempt a slow, holding fight during the early stages. The hot weather of the last two days has made the pugilists cautious in their work. The temperature this forenoon was above 84. The road work of both men was easy and their public exhibition work later was to be several rounds shorter than before.

Why Does the Scenery Appear to Move When We Are Riding in a Train?

When you sit in a moving train looking out of the window it appears as though the fields, the telegraph poles and everything else outside were moving, instead of you. This is because our only ideas of motion are arrived at by comparison, and the fact that neither you nor the seats of the car or any other part of the inside of the car is changing its position, leads you to the delusion that the things outside the car are moving and not you. If you were to pull down all the curtains and the train were making no noise at all, you would not think that anything was moving. It would appear as though you were motionless just as everything in the car appears so. When you turn them to the window, and lift the curtains you carry in the back of your mind the idea of being at rest and that in what matter is moving on through the fields and forests, and the train is moving.

This is the answer to thousands of interesting questions which puzzle the mind. When you are in a train in a station with other train on the next track. You get a sense of motion if one of the trains is moving and you feel that the other train, because you are surrounded by objects in the car, is at rest, and when you look out the other train with this half-consciousness of rest in your mind, it appears as though the other train were moving. As a matter of fact it is you who are moving and the other is at rest. The delusion happens to be the other way, it will appear as though the train is moving and the other is at rest. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, March 31.—Speculative selling today, wiped out an early advance in the prices of wheat. Higher quotations at Liverpool were chiefly responsible for the buoyancy. The market that ensued was influenced somewhat by favorable weather over the domestic winter crop belt. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/4 to 1 1/2 higher, were followed in some cases by a decline to below last night's level. The close was weak at 1 1/4 to 1 1/2.

under last night.
The market suffered from lack of support. Several big houses were conspicuous on the selling side. After opening unchanged to 1/4 off, the market continued to sag.
The close was weak at 1/4 to 1 1/2 off last decline.
Better weather eased oats. The bulk of the business thought was between floor traders.
Scarcity of buying orders made provisions weak. Lard, especially, was being pressed for sale.

BUT $3 BETWEEN A FATHER AND JAIL

Frank Pommert's Mother is Obligated to Come to His Rescue.

But $3 stood between Francis Pommert, a youth who is separated from his girl wife, and jail as he stood adjudged guilty in the city court Wednesday morning of neglecting his child. Francis did not have the $3. His mother, Mrs. Edna Pommert had it, but she was strongly reluctant to let go of it. Judge Kerr held fast to his declaration that young Pommert must forthwith pay $3 to the city clerk for the benefit of the neglected child or accept the alternative of being bound over to the circuit court. Mrs. Pommert, sought to debate the matter with Judge Kerr, who was far from a disputatious frame of mind and stood pat on his ruling. Later the amount was reduced to $2.50 and an order was entered that a similar sum must be paid weekly. Pommert's mother at length produced the money and Pommert was released on his own recognizance with the warning that any delinquency of payments would promptly cause his rearrest. The mother did not hesitate to provide the cash from any amount of money, for she had a $100 cash bond up that had been furnished when her son was arrested. She said she did not want to hand out money to be used by the folks of her son's wife. Mrs. Frank Pommert is an exceedingly pretty and modest young woman. She resided for a time with Pommert's family before they were married and for three months after the union. Then the separation took place, following which came the birth of the child, now about a year old.

On Account of the Dog.

John Leuk, 1149 Grant avenue, was arraigned on an affidavit charging him with violation of a city ordinance in having failed to obey notice from the mayor to kill a vicious dog that he harbors on his residential premises. Complaint was made to the mayor by Mrs. C. A. Ferris, in the employ of the Daily News, who stated the woman in pursuit of her work taking a newspaper copy of the city she called as the Leuk home she was bitten by the dog. Leuk and his wife testified that the dog was "tied with a cow chain" and that two signs in the yard bore the warning, "beware the dog." Policemen Erdman and Court Ballard George Eisenhut both testified that the dog was vicious. Mrs. Leuk declared the dog could hurt no one who kept away from him and her husband later said he would kill the dog if it dared to do so but feelingly remarked that "it would be just the same as killing one of the kids." Judge Kerr took the case under advisement until Thursday morning.

Was Drunk and Belligerent.

Edward Gilligan, who was drunk and belligerent on the street, drew a line of 25 and cents and went to jail. After serving his sentence he remarked in his cell that he "was awful glad he got it."

GERMAN DASH FAILS

LOSE HEAVILY TO RUSSIANS

Daring Maneuvers of Germans in Poland Ends in Disaster.

FRENCH ATTACKS ARE BEATEN OFF

Battle in Passes of Carpathians Tremendous in Possibilities.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

A defeat of German forces in northern Poland attended with unusually heavy losses, is reported unofficially from Petrograd. This information is to the effect that the Germans fell back in the Niemen river district, expecting that the Russians would pursue them and be crushed by a flanking movement. Petrograd states that the maneuver failed and that "entire" divisions of Germans were annihilated. The German official statement of today while making no specific reference to such an engagement, announces that the Russians have suffered reverses at various points north of the Prussian frontier.

Concerning the western front the Berlin communication states that French assaults were beaten back with heavy losses to the attacking forces. The French war office says the situation is unchanged. A German submarine was sighted and attacked by a French cruiser off Dieppe. A statement from the French marine ministry indicated that the submarine may have been sunk as it rose to the surface. The British steamer Flaminian was sunk in the English channel by the German submarine U-28. The crew was permitted to take to the small boats and were rescued.

Petrograd, March 31.—The long silence in Petrograd concerning the operations on the German front was broken today by an authentic report of a daring German maneuver in the Niemen river district which, according to this information, began abortively and ended in failure. The gradual withdrawal of the central part of their Tenth army, a move calculated to draw all the Russian forces into the advance between Suwalki and Kalvaria, was to be followed, according to the Russian interpretations of the German plan, by a quick enrolling movement of their left flank from the vicinity of Lake Duss and Lake Nimno to the rear. This, it was planned, would cut off the retreat of the advancing Russians and at the same time they would be outflanked.

Troops Cross Mating Ice. Overcautiousness in achieving this aim led the German generals to throw a large part of their Twenty-first army corps with three reserve regiments, amounting in all to an entire corps, across the melting ice of Lake Duss, before the middle group of the Russian forces had advanced sufficiently to assure the success of the proposed encircling maneuver. Having surmounted the hazards of the transportation of these troops over weak ice, the Germans discovered, according to the reports coming to Petrograd, that their movement was premature, and in a desperate effort to retrace their step they were met by a force Russian onslaught.

According to their account of this fighting the Russians annihilated the entire divisions of Germans. At other points along the German front isolated engagements continue, but they are without strategic significance.

FRENCH ATTACK REPULSED.

Enemy Sustained Heavy Losses, Says Berlin Report.

Berlin, March 31.—At the war office today the following announcement was made: At Point-a-Mousson French attacks near, and east of Regiville and in the forest of Le Preire were repulsed. The enemy sustained heavy losses and at only one place, to the west of forest of Le Preire, is the engagement still continuing.

Hostile aviators yesterday threw bombs on the Belgian town of Bruges, Ghentelles and Courtrai without doing any damage to military establishments. In Courtrai, near a hospital, one Belgian was killed and one wounded.

"On the Russian frontier, in the district north of Mamel, the banks of the river were cleared of the enemy. The Russians were defeated near Tauragga and retreated in the district of Ekandauri.

ENGINEERING FORCE ON CANAL DISSOLVED

Only Four Will Be Kept on the Job Until Report Completed.

Fifteen engineers and surveyors employed on the survey for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal, many of them for the past year, will be let out by Capt. L. H. Watkins Wednesday evening as their services are no longer needed. Four engineers will be kept on the job until about the 15th of April, by which time Captain Watkins expects to have his report practically completed and ready for the army board. The local office, however, will not close until about the first of May.

A banquet for the engineers and surveyors will be given Wednesday evening at the Baltes hotel and on Thursday they will leave for their respective homes. A few of them will return to school. Up to a late hour Wednesday Captain Watkins was unprepared to give a list of the engineers that will be released as he had not fully decided which four to keep.

STATE DEPARTMENT HAS NO OBJECTION

Does Not Oppose Credit Arrangements With Bel-ligerents.

Washington, March 31.—The state department has not felt justified, Secretary Bryan announced today, in objecting to credit arrangements made with belligerent governments by American financiers insofar as they have been brought to the department's attention. Secretary Bryan said the department had taken no action and expressed no opinion on them.

Secretary Bryan issued this statement: "The state department has from time to time received information directly or indirectly, to the effect that belligerent nations had arranged with banks in the United States for credits in various sums. While loans to belligerents have been disapproved, this government has not felt that it was justified in interposing objections to the credit arrangements which have been brought to its attention. It has neither approved these nor disapproved—it has simply taken no action in the premises and expressed no opinion."

Secretary Bryan was asked if his statement referred to loans recently reported to be under negotiation in this country by the French, Russian and other belligerent governments, and totaling, in the aggregate, a large sum. The secretary replied that his statement referred only to such of those negotiations as had been called to the department's attention. He refused to discuss specific transactions.

MARSHALLS NOW AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Cal., March 31.—Vice President and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, accompanied by Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, Mrs. Roosevelt and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Winston, arrived here from San Diego early today.

After a brief rest Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and Mr. and Mrs. Winston left Los Angeles for the Grand Canyon of Arizona, where they will stay a few days before returning to Washington.

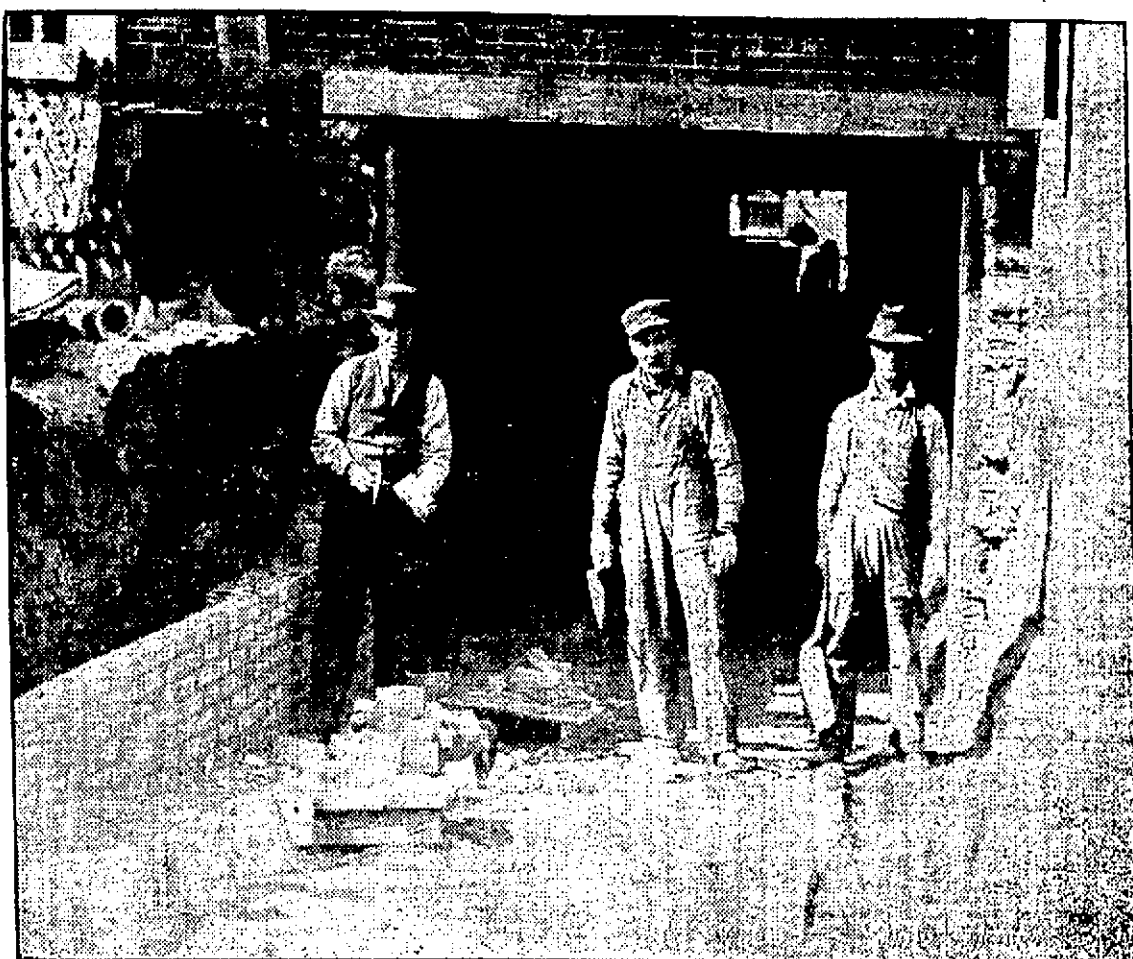

Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will stay here until Friday, when they will leave for Arizona, where several days will be spent.

FIELD ARTILLERY ON JOB AT BROWNSVILLE

Brownsville, Tex., March 31.—Three batteries of the United States Third field artillery arrived here early today to be ready, if necessary, to protect Brownsville when Matamoros is under attack. Maj.-Gen. Frederick Funston, sent here by the war department today to see that the American border is not violated, expressed himself as pleased at the prompt movement of the artillery. It entrained in San Antonio yesterday.

Matamoros was quiet early today with no indications when the Villa troops would begin the attack, which has caused fear of risk to Brownsville through rifle or cannon fire. During the night two skirmishes were held at widely separated points. One of these indicated that the Villa forces have penetrated to the river front below Matamoros, thereby cutting the city off and establishing from the Mexican side a nominal state of siege.

TUNNEL UNDER HOUSE TO MAKE AUTO DRIVEWAY.

Digging a tunnel under the house occupied by the Chalfant and Egly undertaking establishment on West Washington boulevard, a gang of men is building an underground automobile drive to connect the Overland garage in the rear, and at the far end of the tunnel (indicated on the picture by the distant light) an electric elevator will be installed to lift automobiles to the second floor.

WILL RENEW WAR ON RUM

Fight for Dry Nation to Gain More Vigor, Says Senator Sheppard.

EXPECTS SUPPORT FROM REPUBLICANS

World Wide Movement for Prohibition, Declares Texas Statesman.

Washington, March 31.—The fight for nation wide prohibition will be renewed with greater vigor than ever at the next session of congress, Senator Sheppard, of Texas, announced today. Senator Sheppard started the movement for local prohibition in the district of Columbia, which, however, failed of passage at the last session. "We will renew the fight all along the line," he said, "as soon as congress convenes. I expect we will have strong support from the republican side, as well as from the democratic party. The effort will be for both favorable action and submission of a proposed constitutional amendment for prohibition the country over, as well as local prohibition in the District of Columbia."

Senator Sheppard declared the action of Lloyd-George, the British chancellor of the exchequer, denouncing drink as a greater foe to fight than either Austria or Germany, was significant. "The experience of Russia and the declaration of Chancellor Lloyd George, as to what should be done there," said Senator Sheppard, "shows there is a world wide movement for prohibition."

EVERYBODY RUNS JITNEYS.

Auto Owners Reap Harvest as Strike Ties Up Car Lines.

Springfield, Mass., March 31.—Not a trolley car in Springfield, except a few used in the service of the United States mail has moved since the calling of the strike of the trolley men early today. The men held a conference today while the officers of the Springfield Street Railway company also were in session; but there were no early developments as a result of these meetings. Virtually every person who owns a touring car or motor truck collected a harvest as a result of the strike.

WEATHER RECORDS SMASHED.

Snow and Sleet in South Carolina Worst Since 1887.

Washington, March 31.—Another wintry storm swept the southeastern states last night and early today, bringing snow over the Carolinas, Tennessee and North Georgia and general rains further south. South Carolina was swept by a snow and sleet storm of unusual severity, which weather officials say broke all records since 1887. Snow and sleet fell in Augusta, Ga., and the vicinity throughout North Carolina was damaged by the snow storm, which continued today. Asheville reported nearly a foot of snow.

American Passenger Arrested for Fire Aboard the La Touraine.

SAY HE INTENDED TO BLOW UP SHIP

French Accuse Swoboda of "Close Relations With Enemy."

Paris, March 31.—Raymond Swoboda,

one of the passengers aboard the French line steamship La Touraine, which was imperiled by a fire at sea on March 6, has been arrested charged with setting fire to the vessel, according to the Matin. Swoboda, the paper asserts, is suspected of having "close relations with the enemy," and correspondence found in his rooms is said to indicate he had been charged with the task of blowing up the Touraine. He has been taken to Havre.

Investigation made by experts appointed by Admiral Charlier, who is conducting the inquiry into the steamship fire, has established, it is said, the fact that the blaze aboard the Touraine must have been caused by the explosion of some detonating device. Statements made by passengers and members of the crew support this theory.

Doors Wrenched Loose. The explosion was sufficiently violent to wrench loose the doors of cabins near by. The authorities believe the explosive had been placed with criminal intent in a trunk which was stored with the baggage of first-class passengers in No. 2 hold.

With this first report of experts at hand, the state attorney at Havre ex-

REDMAN HAS TOUGH TIME

Terre Haute Judge Given a Grilling on Cross-Examination.

DAILEY IS DIGGING DEEP INTO DETAILS

Probes Accused Jurist Regarding "Acts, Legal and Otherwise."

BULLETIN.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Counsel for Sheriff Dennis Shea, City Judge Thomas Smith, Maurice Walsh, Wm. Doyle and George Woodall, defendants in the Terre Haute election fraud cases, announced this afternoon that they rested their case without introducing any evidence.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Eli H. Redman, who was declared elected judge of the Vigo circuit court at the election of last November by ten votes, who is one of the twenty-eight defendants in the Terre Haute election case in the federal court, was given a severe grilling on cross examination by District Attorney Dailey, when court resumed today.

Redman was first asked about his trip the day after the election to Governor Ralston's office, where a commission for him as judge was requested and refused by the governor on the ground that the papers were not proper and it would seem to be done with "undue haste."

What Records Show. Mr. Dailey then asked regarding acts "legal and otherwise" which Redman had performed in order to hold his position as judge. It was shown by records of the Vigo court that Charles Clogston, editor of the Terre Haute Post, who referred to the grand jury empaneled by Redman to investigate the election as "the gang picked grand jury" was served at 2:45 p. m. with summons to appear at 3 p. m. in court and show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court. Over motions of the defense for more time to prepare a defense, Clogston, the records show was sentenced to thirty days in jail at 4:30 p. m. Clogston was released on a writ from the federal court.

Produced More Records. It was also brought out by Mr. Dailey that three members of the six Vigo grand jurors had served as officials in the election. Redman denied that Frank B. Fippen, who was appointed by Redman a special judge to hear the contest suit brought by C. J. Pulliam, the republican candidate against Redman, had ever been Redman's attorney. Mr. Dailey then produced a record from the Vigo court in which Fippen had affixed his name as attorney for Redman and the demurrer filed in the federal court which Fippen also had signed, along with A. O.

LORD ROTHSCHILD IS DEAD IN LONDON

Head of English Branch of Noted Family Has Passed Away.

London, March 31.—Lord Rothschild, head of the English branch of the Rothschild family, died in London today.

Nathaniel Mayer Rothschild, first Baron Rothschild, was born Nov. 8, 1840, eldest son of the late Baron Lionel Nathan de Rothschild, and was created an English peer in 1885. He was head of the London banking firm of N. M. Rothschild and Sons, and he was the head of the British branch of this well known family of international bankers. Baron Rothschild was widely known for his great wealth, and his philanthropic labors also won him fame. He was also a lover of art, and his collection of art works is very well known. Baron Rothschild was the first member of the Jewish faith ever elected to the British parliament, where he represented Aylesbury from 1865 to 1885, the year he was made a peer. Baron Rothschild underwent a serious surgical operation in London March 27.

PRINZ EITEL COALS TO ATTEMPT A DASH

German Cruiser Prepares to Make Good Its Defiance to Waiting Foes.

Newport News, Va., March 31.—Barge loads of coal for the German auxiliary cruiser, Prinz Eitel-Friedrich, were brought down in Hampton Roads this afternoon. Commander Thierichens planned to begin coaling his raider late today.

Coupling these circumstances with repeated declarations of the Eitel's commander and crew that they would make a dash to sea on a favorable opportunity, shipping circles today were seriously considering the possibility that Commander Thierichens might make good his deft to the hostile cruisers outside the capes and make a dash on a dark or foggy night.

The Eitel remained at her dock today, while seven miles away in Hampton Roads the United States battleship Alabama lies at anchor with steam up and still receiving supplies. Concerning the conference here yesterday between Commander Thierichens and local customs officials, all concerned still are silent.

AL HAZZARD GOES UNDER THE KNIFE

Al Hazzard, the widely known cigar manufacturer, who resides at 610 Sixth street, was taken ill very suddenly Tuesday afternoon and a few hours later, upon advice from the physicians, was removed to the St. Joseph hospital, where an operation was performed in the evening. He was suffering from gallstones.

The operation was successful and reports from the hospital and attending physicians are that Mr. Hazzard is doing as nicely as can be expected. Mr. Hazzard was about his work Monday all day and was on the streets that evening. He complained Tuesday morning and his condition became worse during the day. Towards evening he was suffering from such intense pain that the physicians decided that an operation was the only thing which would bring relief.

DEFENSE IS NOW MAKING ITS FIGHT

Preliminary of Miss Wilson on Murder Charge Not Yet Completed.

(Special to The Sentinel.) Van Wert, Ohio, March 31.—Defense in the case against Miss Lula Wilson, for the fatal shooting of Attorney Levi N. Jacobs last Friday evening, today began the introduction of testimony in the preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Manshit. It is said that several days may be required for the defense, which contends that the shooting was done in self-defense and was justifiable. Clothing worn by the lawyer when he was shot was introduced in evidence by the prosecution last evening. This afternoon the defense submitted various measurements of the Jacobs premises. Miss Wilson is being held without bond and her lawyers have instructed her not to discuss the case.

MARCH BOOM IN BUILDING

Record for Month Shows Gain of $75,000 Over March, 1914.

FIRST QUARTER OF YEAR SHOWS GAIN

Bulk of Operations is in Residence of Moderate Cost.

That the state of business and finance in the country has not worked with untoward effect on the growth and development of Fort Wayne is strikingly proved by the building operations in the city for the month just closing, during which the total of permits issued by the building inspection department at the city hall was $251,000, as against a total for the same month last year of $176,775, a gain of $75,000.

The operations for the first quarter of the present year were over $51,000 in excess of the figures for the first three months of 1914.

The following figures have been compiled by Andrew App, clerk in Building Inspector Philip Wynn's office: March, 1915, 95 permits.....$251,000 March, 1914, 90 permits.....176,775 Gain for 1915.....$74,015 The Quarters Compared.

For the first quarters of 1914 and 1915 the figures show:

January.....$35,350 February.....80,100 March.....251,000 Total.....$366,450

January.....$35,100 February.....80,100 March.....251,000 Total.....$366,200

Largely Residences.

The operations for March, this year, have been largely for residences of modern type and modern cost. The three largest permits taken out were for the Conny Bayer building, $40,000; the remodeling of the Noll building, $15,000; the Freiburger residence, $20,000, and the Haffner residence, $11,000. A year ago there was one operation alone that almost equaled the total of these four and brought up the total to its high figure. The operations this spring indicate that the growth of Fort Wayne is steadily increasing and at a rapid rate and that there is an abundance of money for home-building.

AMBASSADOR PAGE HANDS NOTE TODAY

Washington, March 31.—Ambassador Page, at London, had before him today the American note to Great Britain regarding the order in council against commerce to and from Germany. The communication was cabled to him last night by the state department. It was expected the ambassador would present the note today when it will be made public simultaneously both in London and in Washington.

Pending the presentation of the communication officials refused to reveal its contents. It is known, however, that the American government stands firmly for its right to carry on legitimate trade with neutral countries, even though they be contiguous to the warring nations.

The members were entertained by two actors now appearing at the New Palace theater, who were guests of the club. They were Dave Ferguson, the strolche comedian, and Jarro, the talkative trickster.

DISCOVERS BROKEN BONE.

Walter Lochner's Fall from Bicycle More Serious Than Was Thought.

One week after falling from his bicycle as he was going home, Walter Lochner, assistant secretary of the Commercial club, finds that he has a broken bone in his right arm. At first the attending physician thought it was nothing more serious than a sprain. The arm caused him so much pain, however, that Wednesday morning another examination was made when it was discovered that one of the bones had been broken.

SAYS HE PUSHED HER ON HOT STOVE

Mother-in-Law Also Took a Hand in Violence, Says Mrs. Croxton.

Charging that her husband, on the 8th of last January, grabbed her and threw her against a hot stove and then struck her with a stove-lid lifter, which violence resulted in severe hemorrhages and other bodily ills from which she still suffers, Frank M. Croxton has begun action in the circuit court against Walter E. Croxton for divorce. She also charges that her husband has never provided her with a home but has compelled her to reside with his mother, where she has been continually abused and insulted and by whom she was recently struck and choked while her husband stood by and made no effort to prevent or stop the assault. Mrs. Croxton further alleges that her husband does not sufficiently provide her with money and spends a large portion of what he earns in saloons and gambling rooms, besides staying out all night. She demands $1,000 alimony and the custody of an infant child. They were married January 30, 1912, and separated March 30, 1915.

Says Wife Deserted.

In a complaint for divorce filed in the superior court by John Hocker against Mary Hocker, the plaintiff sets out that they were married September 15, 1895, and alleges that she deserted him in 1913. The defendant is a non-resident of the state, according to an affidavit that accompanied the complaint.

Notes of the Courts.

In the superior court a divorce has been granted to Iva Dempsey from Homer Dempsey.

Neizer & Company have brought suit in the superior court against T. B. Woodward to collect $200 on account. Judgment for $122.65 was given the plaintiffs in the suit of George and Amelia Houser vs. Willard P. Smith by the circuit court.

CLOSE WAYNE TRACE THURSDAY.

The county commissioners announce that beginning Thursday morning Wayne trace will be closed to all traffic at its junction with the Pennsylvania road for the reason that the work of separating grades at that point will be inaugurated. It is advised by the commissioners that persons on the north side of the tracks and desiring to reach the south side of the tracks should go east on New Haven avenue to the Meyer road, one mile east of the city limits, where the tracks may be crossed, and then the Miller road may be taken. St. Andrew's church may be reached by New Haven avenue. People south of the tracks may come into the city by way of Pontiac street.

PREPARED FOR TAXPAYING.

It is stated by County Treasurer J. Herman Buester that he and his office force are now ready to receive the spring installment of taxes. The duplicates are prepared, accounts are indexed and those who go early will get better service than those who go later.

DEPUTY WESTENFELD HURT.

Herman Westenfeld, deputy county recorder, is prevented from attending to his duties by reason of a badly injured finger that was crushed by a bowling ball.

TAX-JUMPER FEELS REMORSE.

A man now residing in Scott, Ohio, writes to County Treasurer J. H. Buester to say that a few years ago he departed from Fort Wayne and left unpaid the taxes he owed the county. "God, in his wisdom, has shown me I did wrong, and if you will send me the bill I will pay it," penitently says the tax-jumper. The writer says the reason he did not pay was that he regarded his taxes as too high and thought a mistake had been made. He will be promptly furnished with a statement from the treasurer.

REDMAN HAS TOUGH TIME

Stanley as counsel for the defendants. Redman also denied having any private conversations regarding the election with Mayor Roberts, another defendant. He also stated that although he had heard charges of irregularities in the preceding election, he paid no attention to the selection of election officials.

Thought It "All Right."

Mr. Dailey also asked about Redman's financial transactions and brought out that the defendant when he borrowed money from Slick brothers and others knew they were saloonkeepers and gambling house proprietors and that they might be called before him if he were elected judge. Redman said he thought it was all right.

The witness also said he saw accounts of charges of fraudulent registration laid to his party in the newspapers, but, although a candidate for judge he made no investigation. When Redman had left the stand the defense of Arthur Gillis, progressive clerk of the registration and election in precinct A of the Sixth ward was begun in charge of Finley H. Mount.

Joseph G. Elder, who previously had testified for the government was called as a character witness for Gillis. Mr. Mount didn't limit his question prior to the present case, and the witness said Gillis's reputation was bad. Before Gillis was indicted, Elder said his reputation was good. The attorney said he was surprised at the first answer.

Winfield S. McCoy, who also had testified for the government, said Gillis's reputation was good but on cross examination admitted he had heard that "there might have been a deal between Gillis and Roberts as Gillis supported Roberts in the city election."

Charles H. Ryan, a Terre Haute undertaker, also said Gillis's reputation was good but he admitted that he had heard some things which the government considered derogatory to the defendant's character.

Dr. C. E. Erwin, chairman of the progressive county committee testified that he appointed Gillis to both the registration and election boards without consulting Gillis.

HARRISON HILL PLAT WILL BE APPROVED

Board, However, Wants a Few Changes in the Streets.

The plat for the Harrison Hill addition to Fort Wayne, a large new residential district being developed by Hilgemann & Schacht, south of the city, will be approved by the board of works, but probably some changes in the streets will be asked by the board, notably Harrison street, which is regarded as of utmost importance.

Harrison Hill addition lies between Calhoun street and Fairfield avenue, and extends southward from Rudisill boulevard to McKinninville. The plat tract consists of fifty-seven acres.

It has been laid out with great care of design and includes a great, almost circular street called Cornell circle. There is provision for a public park and playgrounds and reservation for small parks and extensive park strips.

Harrison street, from Rudisill to Lexington avenue, is made a boulevard with a series of central parkways each fifty feet wide and a drive 47.5 feet wide on either side. At Lexington avenue Harrison street narrows from a boulevard with a total width of 145 feet to a narrow thoroughfare of thirty-seven feet, that pursues a tortuous course to the point where it intersects Cornell circle.

Mayor Hoesy and members of the board of works object much to the disposition made in the plat of Harrison street. Because it is the only great north and south artery that, with the completion of the Harrison street bridge, now under way, will traverse the city from rim to rim, it is thought that there should be no constriction of its width at any point, and the proposed narrowing of it to a mere lane thirty-seven feet wide, laid out with reverse curves, is held to constitute a grave objection.

CHINESE-JAPANESE SITUATION SERIOUS

Peking, March 31.—In diplomatic circles the situation arising from Japanese negotiations of her demands upon China is regarded as more serious today than at any time since the conference to this end were inaugurated.

After further consultation between President Yuan Shi Kai and Foreign Minister Lu Cheng-Hsiang, the Chinese persist that they cannot accord absolute territoriality to Japanese immigrants in Manchuria and at the conference of yesterday Tokio, the Japanese minister, refused to discuss this question further. It is believed in Peking that the conference tomorrow will probably bring a break over this question which has lasted for a number of weeks. Failing to break the deadlock it is felt in some quarters Japan will present an ultimatum.

BIND CASHIER WITH ROPES AND ROB BANK

Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—Four men this afternoon entered the Hays National bank of Hays, near here, and binding Charles Ball, the teller, who was alone in the bank, with ropes, dragged him to a remote corner of the building. They then entered the vault, which was open, and taking about $5,000 in gold carried it to a waiting taxicab in the street and drove away.

Police officers of Homestead and a detail of county detectives from Pittsburg were hastily summoned by Ball, who had watched himself free of the ropes.

THREE MEN KILLED—NOT SPIES.

Identified as Marine Cooks, Who Were Seeking Jobs.

Allentown, Pa., March 31.—The three men who were killed on the Reading railway near Coopersburg, Pa., and in whose possession were found documents leading to the belief that they were spies on their way to the Bethlehem steel works, were identified as members of Marine Stewards and Cooks' union, No. 10, of New York city. The identification was made by Albert Anderson, a representative of the union, as Ernest W. Heinz, Joseph J. Winter and Alfred Gustave Peters.

Among Peters' effects were documents signed by the German consuls at Savannah, Ga., November 4, 1914, and at New Orleans in December of the same year. The authorities spent several hours in an effort to decipher the code signals found on the bodies, but were unsuccessful. They apparently have accepted Mr. Anderson's theory that the men were seeking employment, and were not spies, as was at first reported.

Y. W. C. A. BUILDING AT THE EXPOSITION

Organization is Looking

After Comfort of Women

Visitors.

San Francisco, March 31.—Just inside the main entrance of the Panama-Pacific exposition is a building erected for the use and comfort of the thousands of women who will visit San Francisco during the exposition.

Two years ago the national board of the Young Women's Christian association were invited by the officials of the exposition to erect and equip a suitable structure. The result is a beautiful building in the south gardens, facing the Tower of Jewels. It is directly to the left of the Scott street gateway where it will be convenient for visitors entering or leaving the grounds.

There is an information bureau in the center of the main lobby where it can be seen the moment one enters the building. A staff of trained women is in attendance. The visitor who wants to know about train schedules or car service, or the woman who is anxious to find a good place to board near the exposition grounds, will be given the desired information. Facts about the city and bay region will be furnished here. Directories of the exposition, of officials and employees of churches and social service agencies will be available for all who apply. An emergency service and a trained nurse are part of the equipment of this department.

On this same floor is a large, quick-service lunch room, where both men and women can obtain well cooked food at moderate prices. Five hundred people can be seated here at one time. A mezzanine balcony extends around the room and from the tables laid here one can overlook the south gardens and the lagoon. The Tower of Jewels is only a short distance away and the central features of the wonderful illumination scheme are within a stone's throw. The view from these windows will make the balcony tables most desirable. Aside from the regular lunch and supper there is an afternoon tea service. This lunch room is particularly convenient for the people attending programs in Festival hall.

There are comfortable reading and writing rooms just off the main lobby where strangers in the city may read the news from their own home paper, or write a letter to their friends.

On the second floor is an assembly room which seats 250 people. Motion picture apparatus has been installed. This hall is available without charge for suitable organizations desiring to use it for conferences and meetings. Many organizations whose work is educational in character or along lines of social service will hold sessions in this building. It has been estimated that an average of three or four conventions a day will meet in San Francisco during the exposition year. Many of these will be of special interest to women.

The Young Women's Christian association is planning a strong program of speakers drawn from its own ranks and also from prominent men and women whose work is related to the broader lines of association activities. Problems in home economics, hygiene, physical training and recreation, questions of thrift and efficiency and kindred subjects are to be listed for discussion.

Films picturing actual association work are to be thrown on the screen daily. In addition to the motion picture and stereopticon exhibit, the halls of the building both upstairs and down, will display the winning models—the result of a nation-wide contest. All over the country the girls of the city associations have been working to compete for national prizes. Awards will be made for the best business girl's costume. The decision will be based upon suitability, economy and workmanship. In the department of thrift and efficiency, budgets will be shown giving a distribution of salary calculated to conserve health of body and mind, to provide for moderate recreation and to save up for the future. There will be awards for stories, songs, short articles, photographs and original drawings.

The building on the exposition grounds is more than a center of information and exhibit of work done elsewhere. It is a real Young Women's Christian association at work. A trained worker will give full time to the girls and women employed at the big fair. There will be between two and three thousand of these girls. They must be aided in securing trustworthy living accommodations.

The exposition officials have asked the association to look after any girls who are discharged from the various concessions. They have said that if some probation scheme is arranged whereby the difficulty with the girl can be remedied, there will be the possibility of reinstating her. If she should be permitted to drift out into the city alone and discouraged, she would be open to every sort of temptation. It is the intention of the Young Women's Christian association to offer friendship and practical help through its secretaries and members. Wholesome recreation and relaxation is to be provided.

There are to be evening classes in salesmanship, bookkeeping, typing and stenography conducted in the association building. They will be open to employees of the exposition at a nominal cost. A club room offers an opportunity for social gatherings, and a series of talks on hygiene, dress and comfort will be open to the girls who wish to attend.

As the only strictly woman's building on the grounds, it is expected that it will be in constant use and do a genuine and much-needed service.

REPUDIATES DEED GIVEN TO HUSBAND

Mrs. Catherine Esmond in Will Says Statements Were False.

In the last will and testament of the late Mrs. Catherine Esmond, who died Sunday in St. Paul, Minn., just filed for probate in the Allen circuit court, a large part of the document is given to the repudiation of a deed given to George Esmond, her husband, to change the title of her property. This is done, it is set out in the will, "to correct a mistake inadvertently made" by the testatrix.

Mrs. Esmond stated in the will, which was executed February 2, 1915, that she was induced by her husband to execute the deed to change the title of her real estate from her own name to a tenancy by the entirety between him and her. This property, it is set out, came to her by inheritance from her father, and was rightfully her own. Her husband, she says, by undue influence and misrepresentation, induced her against her will to execute the deed necessary to accomplish this result, on the ground that otherwise he would have no interest whatever in her property, that it would all go to their children, that he would be left without means of support, that every one held their property in this way and that especially her sister and her husband did so.

There was no consideration for the execution of the deed, no witnesses to it and no acknowledgment before a notary or other official, says the will, and the testatrix says she since learned that her husband's statements were false and she therefore repudiates the deed and declares it null and void. The will gives the husband one-third of her estate, with a life interest in the balance and leaves the residue to be divided among her three daughters—Mary Avery, Charlotte Simmons and Ella Denny. The Citizens' Trust company is named as executor.

STUDENTS TO RUN TRAIN.

Twenty-Four Purdue Seniors to Make Tests on the Monon.

Lafayette, Ind., March 31.—Twenty-four seniors of Purdue university, who are specializing in railway mechanical engineering, will compose a testing crew that will man a Monon freight running between here and Bloomington each day for thirty days. Each student will make three complete trips to Bloomington and return, as the seniors have been divided into crews of four men each. The Monon railroad is co-operating with the university in carrying out the tests. H. C. May, superintendent of motive power of the railroad, a Purdue graduate of 1902, will direct the work. Special instruments will be placed on the train to permit the taking of data, which will show the efficiency and operation of the locomotives. The freight will carry its customary load and run under its customary conditions. The tests will provide opportunity for the study of the use of screened and unscreened coal, the behavior of two modern types of locomotives when fired by hand, and their behavior when fired by a mechanical stoker.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Luke 22:54-71.

54 When they took him and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid smote him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

Tax Loss in the "Dry Wave"

Shrinkage of more than two million dollars per year in the government revenues from the internal revenue tax on whisky, with the prospect that there will be a still further falling off is reported from Washington as one of the sequences of the "dry" wave which has been making notable progress in America during the past two years. It is explained, also, that this has materially contributed to the treasury deficit which now confronts the country. Nine states from which the government derives a total revenue of more than $5,000,000 from spirits and liquors—Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Oregon, Virginia, Washington, Iowa and Arizona—will join the "dry" ranks within the next year.

When the Hobson resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for nation-wide prohibition was under discussion in the house during the last session of congress, the liquor people laid great stress on the amount of money that would be lost by the federal government if the tax on liquor was eliminated from its revenues by the banishment of the traffic. This has always been an argument on which emphasis has been laid by the liquor men, and it has doubtless had its effect in retarding the progress of temperance. But the other side of the proposition was recently set forth in a statement by Secretary Bryan that about $2,500,000,000 is spent annually in this country for liquor. The diversion of this vast sum into more wholesome channels of trade should easily make possible the wiping out of the lost revenues from liquor taxes when there comes the readjustment of revenue-raising that is clearly going to be necessary in this country.

Women watchers are to be stationed at the New Jersey polls when the equal suffrage amendment comes up for approval or rejection in September. Denying the intent to either be unduly suspicious or to make invidious comparisons, the New Jersey ladies plainly do not propose to take any unnecessary chances with victory so nearly won.

The mystery surrounding the resignation of Representative Feick, of Garrett, from his seat in the legislature was quickly dispelled by announcement of his appointment as a deputy oil inspector for the Twelfth district. Those who feared that Mr. Feick had been indiscreet enough to fail to provide a place on which to alight when he jumped need have no further alarm. He has landed on his feet.

'Twas ever thus. With the western railroads contending that they must have an advance in freight rates in order to survive, and the western shippers who furnish most of the business insisting that the roads are already earning from 6 to 16 per cent. net, it is about time for the peace commission to tender its good offices in intervention.

County Treasurer Bueter is in receipt of a letter from an Ohio man who says that some years ago he left Fort Wayne with his taxes unpaid; that he is now convinced of his wrong-doing and is anxious to make amends by a settlement of the bill. Splendid; but it must be admitted that the delinquent lists indicate that a vast majority of those in the same category are still unregenerate and unmoved.

Having been released from jail because authorities were unable to make a case against him, Percy A. George, high priest and "apostle" of the "love cult" at Alliance, will now make a tour of Ohio in the interest of his freakish propaganda. We presume Ohio will be willing to stand it if the apostle will refrain from going on the vaudeville stage or breaking into the movies.

Despite the eccentricities of the temperature, spring is here. The last possible doubt has been removed by the issuing of the Central League baseball schedule for the season.

WAR PREDICTIONS.

(Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

There are about as many opinions as to when the war will end and the outcome as there are about how it was started. And the financial and military experts are no more agreed than the men in the street. One of the leading bankers of New York scoffed, a day or two ago, at Lloyd George's theory of the last million deciding the war. This financier said a shortage of money was boosting things one day on the theory that the war will be protracted and the next day on the contrary belief that it will soon be ended. His reply was that both positions were justified. If the war continues this country will keep on supplying munitions of war, foodstuffs and products, which have given us our record balance of trade. On the other hand, an early peace would create demands for constructive materials in even greater quantities than the destructive materials we are now shipping.

That very plausible explanation removes the seeming contradiction. The optimism that seemed so contradictory applied to the war is not when applied to this country. These boosters are simply "bulls" on the United States. It is a significant and encouraging sign of the trend. The experts and the non-experts may know nothing whatever about when the war will end or what will end it, but when it comes down to a plain business proposition all agree that the United States is "the one best bet."

THE COMMON LAW.

(Kansas City Star.)

Reciting an injustice of the law of New York (and of many other states) touching the restricted rights of married women, Dr. Frank Crane says:

"Common law, which is merely ancient custom, rules except where altered by statute."

Or except where altered by judicial declaration.

For common law itself was what certain judges or magistrates, or a certain judge or magistrate, declared the custom to be.

And the common law, as it is basic in our law today, was not merely the ancient customs of one period; it was and is a growth of centuries, and it has not quit growing yet.

The common law is and always has been a kind of gigantic fiction, being the judge-made law imposed upon people without their knowledge and consent.

And today, for example, you will find the lawyer, Judge Alton Brooks Parker, saying that the common law affords all the necessary relief from trusts, and the lawyer, Senator LaFollette, saying that it does not.

As we know, even a written constitution affords the widest latitude to different courts in declaring it, or interpreting it. One court will say that a certain principle embodied in a statute is unconstitutional; another will say that the same principle is constitutional. So we can see from that how judges and courts differed, or grew, in giving form to the mere vague idea of custom.

There is a common law for railroads—which is simply the opinion (or the varying opinions) of modern judges concerning their idea of Twelfth century customs should be as applied to Nineteenth and Twentieth century facts. These "common law rules" of master and servant, which have made workmen's compensation statutes so essential, are rooted in the decisions of judges of the last two hundred years.

The common law did take and has taken a certain (or uncertain) definiteness of form at all times. But the great body of our unwritten, judge-made law would be as unfamiliar and as sensationally unrecognizable to Alfred the Great as a locomotive engine, an aeroplane or a submarine.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "fat" should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co. and E. & N. Pharmacy and other leading druggists in Fort Wayne and vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Rodabaugh will be associated in the venture.

The Shamrock baseball club, which has played for two seasons past, has been reorganized as follows: F. Hilgemann, third base and captain; H. Hilgemann, catcher; T. Utton, first base; Frank Krantz, second base; H. Ostinger, shortstop; P. Beals, right field; T. Henricks, left field; J. Roan, center field; L. Leibig, mascot.

BABY BOY MEETS A HORRIBLE DEATH

Life Strangled Out of Him When Feet Slip and Head is Caught in Bars of Gate in Wells County.

Bluffton, Ind., March 31.—With life extinct from strangulation, Harvey Tschanen, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Tschanen, was found hanging with his head caught between the bars of a gate at the farm home of the Tschanens, four miles east of Bluffton, near the Little school house. The death of the child was plainly accidental. He had climbed himself while at play, having latched upon the gate, stuck his head through the bars and then his feet slipped, his head had been caught between the bars and he had slowly strangled to death, powerless to call for help, to his father, working about the barn, not more than 100 feet distant, or to brothers and sister who were at play in another part of the barn lot.

Dr. J. C. Fulton, of this city, was called to the Tschanen home and quickly as possible after the body of the child was discovered hanging in the gate, and he hurried to the scene in his automobile, but he could render no aid, and he said that there was no doubt but that life was extinct when the child was found.

GEORGE SATTISON IS DEAD.

Columbia City, Ind., March 31.—George Sattison died in his home in this city Tuesday of Bright's disease and other complications.

The deceased was born in Troy township, and was reared there and lived there until about four years ago, when he gave up active farm life and moved to this city. He was the son of Jonathan and Mary Sattison and was born Nov. 5, 1844. On November 10, 1872, he was united in marriage to Samantha Bordner, and one child was born to them, which died in infancy. The death of his first wife occurred on July 11th, four years ago, and in 1913, October 18th, he was again married to Martha E. Coyle, who survives.

WELLS COUNTY FARMER DIES.

Bluffton, Ind., March 31.—Jonathan Brickley, aged 81, one of the pioneer farmers of Union township, passed away Tuesday at his home at Uniondale. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis, sustained last Friday. He was working about the barn on his premises at Uniondale and fell unconscious in the stall beside one of his horses. Mr. Brickley was born on January 19, 1834, in Trumbull county, O., and came to Wells county at the age of twenty-one. Later in life his father, David Brickley, came from Ohio to make his home with his son here, but when Mr. Brickley moved here he came alone, a young man seeking his fortune in a new country. Mr. Brickley was married fifty-four years ago to Miss Gelena Willigan. She, with ten of the twelve children born to them, survives.

SEEK WOMAN'S ASSAILANT.

Warsaw, Ind., March 31.—Police officers are still on the hunt for the unknown assailant who on last Thursday night assaulted Mrs. Homer Longfellow near her home at Pierceton. The prolonged disappearance of a local Pierceton character and the discovery of abandoned man's wearing apparel along the railroad tracks, where the would-be robber is supposed to have changed his disguise, are clues being followed in the search. Mrs. Longfellow was assaulted about 9 o'clock on Thursday night while on her way home. The man struck her and attempted to choke her into insensibility. Her screams and the arrival of her mother upon the scene frightened the man away and he escaped.

HUNTINGTON WOMAN DEAD.

Huntington, Ind., March 31.—Mrs. John Howar, sixty-four years old, died at her home here, death resulting from a stroke of creeping paralysis which attacked her about three weeks ago. Mrs. Howar was born in Stark county, Ohio, July 7, 1850. Her parents were Martha and William Smith. She married John Howar August 16, 1874, to which union there were five children born. Four children survive with the husband.

TRYING TO GET GRAVEL ROADS.

Columbia City, Ind., March 31.—A petition is now being circulated among freeholders in Columbia township for their signatures favoring the graveling of about eight miles of roads leading into the city of Columbia City. The petition needed about fifty signatures, but there are now over two hundred and fifty signatures, it is said, so there is no question but that after the petitions are filed before the county commissioners that they will order an election to let the voters of the township decide whether they want the improvements made or whether they are against the building of the proposed gravel roads. There are five roads grouped under one head and they amount to about eight miles of road in all.

ALBION PIONEER DIES.

Albion, Ind., March 31.—Mrs. Martha Prickett, a pioneer resident of Noble county, is dead at her home in Albion. She had been ill for some time and death was the result of senility. Mrs. Prickett was the daughter of Col. John Jackson, a resident of Elkhart county, who was one of the early fighters in the Indian wars. She had been a resident of Noble county for sixty years and was the widow of Fielding Prickett, a prominent lawyer who died in 1886. She was over 83 years of age and was a remarkable woman, retaining her mental faculties to the end. Previous to her last illness she had been very active. She was the mother of one daughter, died, first wife of Judge L. H. Wright.

CRAZED BY USE OF MORPHINE.

Lagrange, Ind., March 31.—An insanity commission consisting of Drs. Hosteller and Rozelle and Justice Minnick convened Tuesday afternoon and found Harley Edwin Betts, aged 50 years, mentally unbalanced due to the use of morphine and application has been made for his admission to Easthaven asylum where it is expected proper care and treatment will restore him to his normal condition. Mr. Betts was for a number of years a nurse at the Kalamazoo asylum where it is claimed, he incurred the drug habit.

WARSAW MAN ENDS LIFE.

Warsaw, Ind., March 31.—Driven to desperation by failing health, Julius Boss, aged 55, a wealthy retired farmer of this city, committed suicide Tuesday in his garage at his home on East Market street by shooting himself through

CAME NEAR LOSING EYE.

Huntington, Ind., March 31.—A weed stalk thrown by one of his companions struck Ed Harkender in the eye and a piece more than an inch long and about the size of a lead pencil forced its way under the eyeball. It was one of the most unusual cases that has been treated by the physician who removed the piece of stalk. The stalk was slightly curved and formed like a cork screw. When Harkender reached the doctor's office the lower eyelid hid it its presence being shown only by a lump under the skin. Forceps were clamped on it with difficulty, but it was pulled out without tearing the eyeball or flesh.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH.

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hacking, sniffling, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone. Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.—Adv.

COUNTY S. S. CONVENTION.

Van Wert, O., March 31.—The Van Wert County Sunday School association will hold a county convention at Van Wert, on Sunday, June 6. The object of holding the convention on Sunday is to give to the business man and farmer an opportunity to attend. While the program has not been made, it is certain that Dr. J. D. Darling, the new state secretary, and M. G. Bally, who has taken so much interest in the boys' congress, will be on the program. Three sessions will be held in the afternoon, at the same time, and at three different churches, while a union meeting will be held in the evening.

CHILD DIES OF BURNS.

Decatur, Ind., March 31.—The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins, of Monroe township, was so badly burned Tuesday that he died at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The boy was in the orchard playing with matches and building bonfires. His clothing caught fire, and before he could be reached and the flames extinguished he was so badly burned that death came at 2 o'clock. The Hawkins home is near St. Paul's church, three miles east and a mile south of Monroe. No further particulars of the terrible accident could be learned, nor the time for the funeral.

ONION FEST TO LAST WEEK.

Columbia City, Ind., March 31.—The men in charge of the onion carnival at Wolf Lake have decided to give one week of celebration this year instead of the two days which has been their custom in past years. They expect to have an aviator on hand to entertain the crowd from time to time, and many other interesting features. Nothing has been given out as to what Collins will do this year, but it is probable that they will not let Wolf Lake outstrip them in their onion show.

TAKES TWIST AT POOL ROOMS.

Portland, Ind., March 31.—"Close your place of business at 11 o'clock each night, except Saturday, cut out 'race horse' rum, permit no gambling of any nature, keep closed on Sunday and don't allow minors to enter," is in substance the edict of Marshal Tilden to the proprietors of all pool rooms and cigar stores of the city where card tables are to be found. The order is applicable forthwith and is to be enforced strictly. On Saturday night the pool rooms can remain open to 12 o'clock. The new rules result from numerous complaints received by the officers, most of them coming from the wives of patrons of the pool rooms.

BEATS WIFE; FLEES WITH ANOTHER.

Hartford City, Ind., March 31.—Harry Doda and a woman by the name of Nettie Case, fugitives from the police here, are believed to be in Muncie. Doda gave his wife, who was formerly Goldia Laisure, a good beating when she refused to give him spending money. According to the officers the woman claims that Doda has spent $800 which she saved. A charge of adultery has been entered in the circuit court against Doda and the Case woman.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Weth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Adv.

For a Weak Stomach.

If you have any trouble with your digestion you should read what Mrs. J. C. Bauer, Zanesville, Ohio, has to say regarding her experience as follows: "I was troubled for months with a weak stomach and constipation and it was all I could do to drag myself about the house. Chamberlain's Tablets afforded me the first relief I got, and after taking them a short time I was restored to health." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

RED MEN TO ENTERTAIN.

Affair Is to Be for Members Only and Their Families.

Mechanicus tribe, No. 106, Improved Order of Red Men, will entertain Wednesday evening at its hall in the Aldine block, the members and their families. Arrangements are being made to charter a special car to take local members to the district meeting to be held in Huntington on April 8. The chief's degree will be conferred by the team from the local tribe and music for the occasion will be furnished by the Red Men's orchestra.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows, you can help nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucous and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. It is pleasant to take and harmless as it contains no narcotic. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

AT THE EMPRESS.

"Thursday night at the Empress is going to be 'Cotton Carnival Night.' "What is it? No one knows except the management of this theater, and the management winks an eye and looks wise, so that's all there is to be known about it. So whether it is good or bad, it will be not a bad idea to pack up and make a trip to the Empress Thursday to find out what the cotton carnival is. Theater patrons have been assured that the idea is altogether a new one for Fort Wayne, the novelty of the affair having never been presented here before.

To say the least, however, whatever the carnival turns out to be, no time will be lost, as the bill this week is an exceptional one, in every way, shape and form.

AT THE NEW PALACE

Keith's Spring Feature Bill Winner at New Palace.

"Festival is right," in describing the current bill of features at the Keith New Palace, as the program is the happiest selection of amusement hits of the season. The twelve act fun-feature provides a menu of entertainment of a variety wide enough to tempt the palate of the most blasé. Miss Adelaide Herrmann will afford you something to wonder about for weeks, as she presents a score of the tricks and illusions that made her late husband great, and closes a gorgeously set attraction with a mystifying illusion called "The Sleeping Beauty," in which she causes a beautiful girl to be suspended in a group of artistic poses without any evident physical support. The real laugh hit of the festival is "The Belle of Bingley," the absurd skit in which Fred Whitfield and Marie Ireland, assisted by Lew Murdoch, are appearing. Miss Ireland, as the village belle, has a character role that is immense and her witty answers to questions put to her by Whitfield, while her burlesque society dancing is a riot.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

"THE COMMANDING OFFICER."

Winsome Alice Dovey, Famous Actress, at Jefferson in Famous Players' Drama.

One of the strongest feature dramas of recent times is this five part adaptation of Theodore Durt Sayre's noted military drama, "The Commanding Officer." Alice Dovey, the beautiful young actress, who scored such fine success in Victor Herbert's late opera, "Papa's Darling," is seen in the principle role of the piece and she receives the able assistance of such co-stars as Donald Crisp, Russell Bassett, Olive Johnson, Ethel Phillips, Jack Pickford and Marshall Neilan.

Produced in California under the direction of Allan Dwan, the photoplay is further enriched by the broad, sweeping backgrounds that are both charming and utterly appropriate to the action of the play.

AT THE COLONIAL

"ARE THEY BORN OR MADE."

Colonial Has Singular Feature in Powerful Morality Drama.

After viewing this remarkable picture, "Are They Born or Made," Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the famous poetess and moralist, declared it one of the most intensely interesting photoplays that she had ever witnessed, and she was so enthusiastic about possibilities of the film as a means of educating the youth of America up to true manhood by depicting on the screen the terrible results of wrong doing, that she impromptu various authorities in different cities to show the photoplay to young men, and have them profit thereby.

The story of the picture is revealed in interesting and many times thrilling fashion, and what it is a play that will not only educate, but it will grip and hold the emotions.

TO RAISE ILL-FATED WARSHIP AT ANY COST

Daniels is Determined to Bring Sunken Submarine F-4 to Surface.

Washington, March 21.—Secretary Daniels was determined today to raise the sunken submarine F-4 in Honolulu harbor, no matter what the operation may cost. He wants to learn the cause of the accident so as to avoid similar disasters in the future.

This was made known after advice had been received from Rear Admiral Moore, at Honolulu, which said that preparations were being made to raise the submarine by the pontoon method. The fact that the admiral reported the submarine evidently was waterlogged and therefore too heavy to be raised by the equipment previously employed, banished the hopes of officials that any of her crew might be found alive.

Secretary Daniels announced that in event of failure of efforts now being made to raise the submarine the navy department would send the necessary equipment to raise her. He said there was no truth in reports that he was dissatisfied with the work of naval authorities at Honolulu. On the contrary the secretary said they were doing everything possible to raise the submarine.

GRAPNEL CABLES SNAP.

Honolulu, March 21.—Grapnel cables snapped to a heavy object believed to be the lost submarine F-4, parted late yesterday and work was suspended for the night. The spot was carefully marked and it was announced another attempt would be made today to grapple the object. A huge diving tube, which engineers have been hastily constructing, was completed last night. It was submerged 35 feet and was left in the harbor until morning, in order, to test its stability.

The city has been secured to obtain 700 feet of reinforced hose to be used for air tubes. Twenty-one coffins have been delivered at the navy dock for the ill-fated crew of the F-4.

WATERWAY MEETING HELD AT HUNTINGTON

Local Speakers on Program With Secretary Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Another enthusiastic waterway meeting was held Tuesday evening at Huntington, at which time Hon. S. A. Thompson, secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, was the principal speaker. Perry A. Randall, of this city, also spoke, taking for his subject, "Dreams That Come True."

A banquet preceded the meeting in the Commercial club rooms, Judge Samuel E. Cook, presiding as toastmaster. J. W. Caswell, head of the Caswell Runyon company, and a director in the Erie and Michigan Deep Waterway association, was the first speaker. He welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city and the Commercial club and said the gates were always open to those who wish to enter and boost the canal.

Captain L. H. Watkins, in charge of the survey for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago canal, spoke on the subject, "A Project." His talk dealt particularly with what has been done in making the survey during the past fifteen months. He said he had no doubt that plenty of water can be found for the canal.

Mr. Randall admitted that he was a dreamer, but that the dream he has been having regarding a canal connecting the great lakes is soon to be realized.

Must Push Together. Mr. Thompson's address was practically the same that he delivered in Fort Wayne Monday evening. "The greatest thing the people of northern Indiana can do for the upbuilding of its cities—the best thing you people of Huntington can do for the upbuilding of your city—is to push together until the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago canal is in operation," he said. "We need good roads in this country, we need good waterways and we need economical transportation and with the waterway the economical transportation will come."

ESTABLISHES HOME FOR NEWSPAPER MEN

New York, March 21.—John Brisbane Walker, formerly a magazine publisher here, now retired to his Colorado estate, announced through the Editor and Publisher today an offer to give a site of forty acres at Mount Morrison, Col., to establish a home for newspaper men. Mr. Walker stated that he had reached the decision to offer the gift after conferences with New York journalists.

In his announcement Mr. Walker declared that "although no profession makes more serious demands upon the health of its members than that of journalism, no attempt has been made up to this time to establish a country home where those who have given their best efforts to the press may find a retreat in the event of a temporary or permanent breakdown."

Vincennes, Ind., March 21.—The jury in the case against Frank Moore, poolroom proprietor, charged with keeping a gaming house, after being out eleven hours, returned a verdict of not guilty. Joseph W. Kimmel, prosecutor, following the ruling of the court in the gambling case, in which he held that John Doe defendants were not good, nulled a large number of counts in the indictments, which charged gambling with the fictitious associates.

RUSSIANS AGAIN BATTLE FOR PASS

London, March 21.—After a brief lull in the fight for possession of Dukla Pass in the Carpathians the Russians have brought up reinforcements and resumed the attack.

At Vienna it is said that the Russians have not been able to gain their objective at any point along the Carpathian front for the invasion of Hungary, and that they were defeated in Bukovina yesterday. Dispatches to Swiss newspapers, however, say the Austrians have suffered enormous losses in eastern Hungary. It is estimated they lost 15,000 men on Monday and the Russians are credited with annihilating a column of 4,000 Austrians in an hour.

The increasing pressure of the Russians on this front together with the fall of Przemyśl, may have an influence on the operations in the west. The report is being spread in Holland that the Germans are contemplating the abandonment of their present line in Belgium in favor of a less extended front running slightly west of Brussels, and that withdrawal of German cavalry from the Yser line already has begun.

A Russian victory in the campaign against Turkey is announced from the headquarters of the Caucasian army. In the fighting in Turkish Armenia along the coast of the Black sea, the Russians captured the town of Artvin. German warships have again bombarded the Russian port of Libau, on the Baltic. Three persons were killed during two attacks.

A Reuters dispatch received from Constantinople by way of Berlin says the allied fleet has resumed its bombardment of villages near the outer forts of the Dardanelles. Turkish aviators are making daily reconnaissances.

FLAMINIAN'S CREW SAVED.

British Freighter Is Sent Down by German Submarine.

London, March 21.—(1:12 p. m.)—The Ellerman line steamer Flaminian, with a general cargo, from Glasgow to Capetown, was sunk off the Scilly Isles Monday, March 20, presumably by a German submarine. The members of the crew were saved.

The Flaminian was of 2,218 net tons. Shipping records located her at London on March 3. This is the same vessel that was reported sunk last night. Her name was not then known. She had no passengers on board. Her crew of 39 men took to their boats and were picked up by the Danish steamer Findlandia and landed at Holyhead this morning.

and his hands and face were blistered. The mother of the children had gone to a neighbor's and arrived home just in time to see the rescuers leaving the burning cabin with the children.

SPECTACULAR BLAZE AT OLD BOX FACTORY

Morning Fire on East Columbia Street Supplies Some Thrills.

A spectacular fire that for a time threatened other buildings in the vicinity destroyed an old shed on the vacant lot east of Weil Brothers on East Columbia street belonging to James L. Robinson, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, causing a loss estimated at $150. The flames leaped high into the air and could be seen for a distance of several blocks.

The shed was used by Mr. Robinson in repairing old boxes and barrels and as there were several boxes stored in it at the time a hot blaze resulted. The shed was built against the brick building belonging to Weil Brothers and this structure was probably saved from damage as a result of the automatic fire shutters which worked perfectly. Firemen from companies 1, 3 and 4 fought the blaze for over an hour. There was no insurance.

There had been no fire in the building for two weeks and Mr. Robinson is of the opinion that through curiosity somebody entered the shed Wednesday morning and before leaving carelessly dropped a lighted match. Only a few days ago 411 second-hand boxes were shipped to Chicago or the loss would have been much greater. In a nearby shed considerable old paper was stored and for a time it seemed that it, too, would catch fire.

LADIES' AUXILIARY IS TO BE ORGANIZED

At a meeting of Company D, Third Infantry, next Friday evening, steps will be taken for the organization of a ladies' auxiliary. On that evening members of the company will entertain their wives, mothers, sweethearts and sisters, all of whom will be eligible to membership in the new organization.

In years gone by there was an auxiliary and the women were found invaluable in many ways. They often gave bazaars, fairs, entertainments, suppers and various social gatherings for the benefit of the militia. At the meeting Friday refreshments will be served and a general good time will be enjoyed.

During the summer months the company will hold outings and week-end camps at stated intervals in places easily accessible to the public. Beginning Wednesday night, there will be rifle practice on the indoor range every week.

TRADE CONDITIONS ARE MUCH IMPROVED

Business conditions continue to improve, though slowly, according to the general letter on trade conditions issued for the month of April by the Old National bank. The letter says in part:

"Our condition was bad enough before the outbreak of hostilities in Europe, which, temporarily at least, multiplied our business handicaps. Within sixty days, however, after the beginning of the war, a slight improvement was noticeable and, slow though it may be, that improvement has steadily gone forward. Hindrances to shipping, rumors of other countries being drawn into the European conflict, fear of a climax in our Mexican diplomatic negotiations and a general feeling of uncertainty—these things make business men cautious, but expansion is taking place, more men are being put to work as the mills resume, and the erection and extension of factories has started."

AN OLD TIME PRINTER OF FORT WAYNE DIES

I. W. Campbell Passes Away at Spokane, Wash., at Age of 81 Years.

I. W. Campbell, an old-time printer of Fort Wayne, died recently at the home of his daughter in Spokane, Wash., at the advanced age of eighty-one years. Mr. Campbell, who was born in Catawissa, Pa., and learned his printer's trade in Bloomsburg, came to Fort Wayne many years ago and worked for John Dawson, who then owned the Fort Wayne Sentinel.

A few years later he became deputy sheriff of Allen county and was also in the auditor's office of this county for several years. Many of the pioneer residents of this city can well remember him.

He moved from this city to St. Louis in 1888 and remained there until four years ago, when his wife passed away. He then went to Spokane, Wash., where he made his home with his daughter, Miss Edith Campbell. Besides his daughter, he is survived by one son, J. W. Campbell, Jr., of Portland, Ore. Mrs. E. G. Pierce, of East Lewis street, this city, is the only surviving sister. The body will be shipped to St. Louis where it will be placed beside the grave of his wife.

The Beauty Lectures Continue All Week

"Beauty is only skin deep," runs the old saw, but where's the woman who doesn't want that skin to be soft and smooth and white, free from wrinkles and unsightly lines? How to have a clear complexion and soft, beautiful skin is what Dr. Martha Turner—the little woman who is forty-three and doesn't care who knows it—is telling the women of Fort Wayne this week. If you haven't heard her talks on beauty, stop a moment and you'll learn a thing or two that will be of value to you.

Dr. Turner will be in our store the rest of this week. She invites all women to hear her, and she will answer all questions regarding her work you may care to ask.

LIGONIER DOCTOR GUILTY, SAYS JURY

Dr. Wineburg Convicted on White Slave Charge at Chicago.

Chicago, March 21.—Dr. Louis P. Wineburg, a physician of Ligonier, Ind., was found guilty last night of violation of the Mann "white slave" act. He was convicted of having transported Belle Locher, 16 years old, to Chicago for immoral purposes.

Federal Judge Carpenter advised the jury that it had no concern with the motives of congress in enacting the law. "The law is to be considered as it stands," he said, "regardless of the general opinion that it was aimed at the commercial traffic in women."

The government contended that Wineburg, while ostensibly treating Miss Locher as a physician, induced her to go to Kalamazoo, where he joined her, and then brought her to Chicago, registering at the Great Northern hotel as husband and wife. Both Dr. Wineburg and the girl were mercilessly assailed by opposing attorneys in their arguments.

Miss Locher sobbed throughout the argument. When it was finished she was taken into the corridor by her sister Lauretta, in fear that she would be overcome.

Across the room sat the wife and two small girls of the physician. Mrs. Wineburg seemed unaffected by the address of the government's attorney. She held her daughters close to her and gazed in an absent-minded way at her husband, who sat between his lawyers. The little girls played with the broad ribbon sashes about their waists, unmindful of what was going on about them.

The girl's father and mother and Lauretta were placed on the stand and testified that allegations of the doctor as to a certain unhappy incident in the life of Grace Belle, in the winter of 1912, are false. Miss Locher took the stand and denied the doctor's accusation.

GOVERNOR AND WIFE VISIT REFORMATORY

Jeffersonville, Ind., March 21.—Governor and Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston spent several hours here yesterday visiting the Indiana reformatory. They were en route to Memphis and Chattanooga, Tenn., where the governor will speak at good roads meetings.

Mrs. Ralston distributed flowers to the men in the workshops and one of them dropped to his knees and kissed the hem of her skirt as tears streamed down his face. The governor shook hands with many of the men and chatted with them about their work.

Later Governor Ralston addressed the prisoners in the dining room. His remarks often were interrupted by applause. The "trusties" band played several lively airs. When the Ralstons started to leave the room the prisoners all began to sing "Shouldn't Auld Acquaintance."

and Be Forgot," and the governor and his wife again shook hands with scores of them.

Governor Ralston congratulated the superintendent, Major David C. Peyton, and Mrs. Peyton, on the condition of the institution and urged them to "keep up the good work."

FRIARS RETAIN THE CHAMPIONSHIP CUP

Win Over the Lyceum Feds in Most Sensational Finish.

All hail to the Friars, city champions of 1915, and perpetual possessors of the coveted Shield trophy! They turned the trick last night at Concordia gym with a sensational finish over the Lyceum Feds, who, during the first half, seemed to have come back. The game was a thriller from start to finish, and although the south side basketballers led almost from the start of the game, the Friars never lost heart and when their chance came they all pulled together and capped off the highest honors. Lots of Lyceum money was lying around loose during the intermission and a few canny Friar partisans gathered it in and as a result several well known citizens of the south part of town were compelled to hoof it home. The cup defenders were way behind at the end of the first period and up to that time had scored only once from the field. The Feds had been coming strong and it looked as if they would win handily. From the first tapoff the Friars discovered they did not have the easy team to deal with that they were up against last Thursday. The addition of Miller, who has recovered from his sickness, strengthened the Fed lineup and transformed it from the crudely working organization of a few days ago into the smooth running machine that opened their season.

For some little while after the opening no goal was scored but someone left Miller uncovered and he registered. Flaharty replied with another shortly after. Gerberding was given a chance to show what he was and he demonstrated it by a free throw. Some time later he scored from the field and then got another chance which he negotiated successfully. No more scoring was done on either side and the half closed 7 to 4 in the Lyceum's favor. Probably too much guarding was the cause for the low score at the half way point, for each man stuck to his opponent like glue and very few chances to score were given.

After some five minutes of hard floor work Loos dropped one in from under the basket. Stroup's long goal from the field, however, brought the Lyceum's lead down to three again. A foul goal by Miller and two from the field by Stroup and Gerberding tied the score at 10 to 10 and then the fans did sure whoop'er up. A goal apiece and then an easy one by Gerberding put the Friars ahead for the first time of the game. Miller tied again but two in a row by Stroup and one by Kennedy after he had tried a couple of times put the game on ice for the cup defenders and then the time was up. The final count showed the Friars winners at 20 to 14.

Stroup has most of the glory coming to him for the way that he won the game for the Friar five. His goals all came at opportune times and his shooting was for the most part remarkably accurate. Miller played him a close second for honors, and although his recent illness possibly slowed him down considerably, he was always at the bottom of all the mix-ups. The lineup and score:

Friars, 20; Lyceum, 14.
Stroup, F.; Miller, C.; Flaharty, C.; Gerberding, F.; Kennedy, C.; Loos, C.; Brown, C.; Dietrich, C.; Blee, C.
Field goals—Stroup, 4; Gerberding, 4; Kennedy, 1; Miller, 2; Flaharty, 2; Loos, 2. Free throws—Gerberding, 2; Miller, 2. Referee—Wiltse.

PROTESTANT LEAGUE RACE IS CLOSE ONE

With six more names to play and the St. John's Reformed five just two games behind the First Presbyterians, the Protestant bowling league race has become extremely interesting. The Presbyterians lost two games Tuesday evening and the Reformed crowd capped off a thriller for the grand finale. In the last game of the season the Reformed and Presbyterian fives will meet. BIG SEAT SALE.
Johnson-Willard Advance Sale Reaches $55,000.

Havana, Cuba, March 31.—The advance seat sale and reservations for the Johnson-Willard fight amounts to $55,000. Prominent purchasers are said to include the jockey club, which took eight boxes at a cost of $2,000; the tennis club, which has reserved seats costing $3,700, and the Union club $2,600. The son of the late Gen. Thomas Palma, one time president of Cuba, has engaged two boxes. The brother of President Menocal and General Hernandez have taken the same number. It looks as though Johnson is sure to get his $30,000.

FRANKIE MASON.
Held to Draw by Joe Nelson Tuesday Night.
Frankie Mason, Fort Wayne's fast little paperweight, got a clout across the head in the final round of a ten-round go with Joe Nelson, of Hartford City, Tuesday night, that laid him flat on the floor. He had been leading up to that time, and critics called the go a draw.

Billy Sunday's Holy Week Revival Sermons for Fort Wayne

I am an old-fashioned preacher of the old-time religion that has warmed this cold world's heart for two thousand years.—Billy Sunday.

Billy Sunday's Third Holy Week Revival Sermon—Subject: "The Inner Wall"

BY REV. BILLY SUNDAY.

(Copyright, 1915, by the Newspaper Enterprise association.)
"For this cause I bow my knee unto the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, that He would grant you to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man."—Ephesians III:14-16.

The pages of ancient history tell of a certain Dutch city bombarded by the Spaniards. The city was surrounded by a great wall which gave the Dutch inhabitants a sense of security; and against this wall the Spaniards hurled their battering rams in persistent assault. Finally, to the consternation of the Dutch, the wall showed signs of breaking. The Dutch decided to erect another wall inside of the one which was weakening. They laid the foundation deeper, built it wider than the outer wall and just as the last brick was laid upon it the outer wall gave way. Through a breach in this outer wall the swartly Spaniards rushed, but they were stopped by the inner wall; their battering rams fell to no avail; the inner wall was impregnable.

Now it is the business of Christianity to erect in the inner life of the individual a wall which will render that individual safe from the assaults of the enemies of the soul.

We live our life in the enemy's country—we are constantly surrounded by enemies to our well-being.

Organized society has seen that the individual is surrounded by these enemies and has built around the individual certain outer walls to protect him from them.

Some of these walls are: The wall of legislation which has great protective power and is one of the things which distinguishes civilization from savagery.

2. Education—Organized society has seen that ignorance is soil in which seeds of badness grow with alarming rapidity, so it has set about the erection of a wall of education around the individual.

All things being equal the educated man should be better able to protect himself against the enemies of the body, the mind and the soul and the individual is much safer when surrounded by the outer wall of education.

3. The Home—Organized society has seen that the influence of wife and children is one of the most wholesome influences of life. The stability of society, virtue of womanhood and honor of manhood depends upon the development of a good home life.

Now I feel like taking off my hat to organized society for the real service it has rendered the cause of religion by erecting these outer walls of legislation, education and home; but there is no one who does not know that there are exigencies in life when no one nor all of these walls can render the individual safe.

And I want now to pay a tribute to that one inner wall of genuine Christian character which will stand when all these outer walls have crumbled into dust.

If every man in America was a genuine Christian we could turn our swords into pruning hooks, our bayonets into ploughshares, sink our battle-ships, spike our guns and hang a "For Rent" sign over every brewery, over every saloon, and houses of shame would become houses of virtue.

No one of these walls, nor all, without the inner wall of Christianity, can render the nation, or the individual, safe from the enemies which attack us on all sides, but the inner wall of the religion of Jesus Christ can protect him even though every other wall be torn down.

On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake my sure repose?
By Salvation's walls surrounded,
I can laugh at all my foes!

Tomorrow's sermon in the Daily Sentinel's revival, conducted by Billy Sunday, is a wonderful discourse. You can't afford to miss it. The subject is: "WHO WAS JESUS?"

Billy Sunday

NO ACTION TAKEN ON CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

On the theory that a co-operative store such as is to be established in Fort Wayne will not hurt their business, members of the Retail Merchants' association took no action Tuesday evening at a special session held in the Commercial club.

The meeting was devoted chiefly to a discussion of the laws passed by the last legislature. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the officers of the Indianapolis association for information regarding the methods employed there to enforce the law advertising bill. President Mills reported that the national association is doing splendid work in suppressing the coupon-profit sharing game.

Frank J. Kabe, of the Foster Furniture company, gave an interesting talk on his visit to the west and to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

TAX ASSESSORS "FIRED."

Governor Willis, of Ohio, Makes Wholesale Dismissals.

Columbus, Ohio, March 31.—In order to place the taxing machinery of Ohio in the hands of officials sympathetic with the state administration, Governor Frank J. Willis last night directed the state tax commission to dismiss 102 district tax assessors, 88 of whom are Democrats, and announced that he would at once name their successors.

The governor's announcement came immediately after the lower house of the legislature had killed the Reiter bill, which would have given county auditors authority to make up this year's tax duplicate.

The governor's action was prompted, he said, by the fact that the majority party in Ohio has substantially no representation in the taxing machinery of the state and reports that democratic taxing officials intended to resign at critical times during the assessment period in order to embarrass the administration.

Salaries of the removed officials range from $1,800 to $5,000 a year, according to the population of the county in which they have jurisdiction.

TANGLE ENSUES OVER 'PHONE FIRE ALARM

A tangle over a fire alarm by telephone occurred at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening when a telephone alarm of a blaze in the Tarlets shirtwaist factory at 214-216 East Main street. A fire started in a heap of shirtwaist boxes and someone called the department by telephone. Engine companies 1, 3 and 4 responded, and after a few minutes when the blaze was not discovered, someone thought that there probably had been a mistake in getting the telephone message, and sent the department sky-rocketing to East Wayne street. It was a happy thing for the horses that there were no more suggestions, and the department returned to its original place. Here Fireman Charles Treco located the blaze and the fire was extinguished with a small chemical line. The loss was slight.

Another Slight Fire.
About an hour later the inefficiency of the telephone alarm again was demonstrated when a telephone call to the home of Joseph Doepker, 522 Madison street, was turned in. Before the telephone man at headquarters had an opportunity to get things squared away for the run the box a square from the fire was pulled, and the engine companies responded to that alarm before the complex telephone system was placed in operation. The fire at this place started from sparks from a chimney and burned a big hole in the roof. The firemen had to cut a hole in the plaster to get at the blaze, and Chief Hilbrecht estimated the loss at least $150. It was Assistant Chief George Jasper's day off duty and Chief Hilbrecht answered all alarms yesterday.

ISSUE CALL FOR PRAYERS.

New York, March 31.—The federal council of the Churches of Christ in America which recently tabulated statistics of the churches showing an unusual gain in membership during the last year, has issued through its commission on evangelism a call to prayer for a world-wide revival, urging the churches not to be satisfied with the gains of the year past.

The call which is signed by Dr. William H. Roberts and Dr. W. E. Biederdorf, chairman and secretary, respectively, of the commission on evangelism, as well as by Professor Shailer Mathews, president of the federal council, who has just returned from a mission of good will in Japan, and by Dr. Charles S. MacFarland, general secretary of the council, claimed that the spiritual advance of the church has always been marked by revivals.

SECRETARY CASH
TO HAVE ASSISTANT
Board of Management Appoints Myrl L. Vance,
Who Takes Office April 1.

The board of management of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. has decided to give Secretary A. J. Cash an assistant, and the appointment has fallen upon Myrl L. Vance, who arrived in the city today and will assume the duties of the office April 1. Mr. Vance is a native of Logansport, where he graduated from the high school and later served two or three years as a clerk in the office of Master Mechanic F. V. McDonnell, of the Panhandle. About a year ago Mr. Vance went to South Bend to take a position as time clerk in the Studabaker works, from which he resigned to come here to take the office of assistant to Secretary Cash. The young man is a member of the Christian church of Logansport and has taken a great interest in Y. M. C. A. work both at Logansport and at South Bend.

The rapid growth of the local Railroad Y. M. C. A. under Secretary Cash's direction and a determination to expand the work in every conceivable manner were factors in bringing the board to a realization of the necessity for an assistant secretary.

When Mr. Cash took hold of the secretaryship, December 1, the membership was 266. Three months later, on March 1, it was 432, and April 1 it will have reached approximately 450. An effort is to be made to carry the number up to 1,000 by January 1, 1916. With this end in view, the association rooms are to be made more attractive. The opera chairs in the auditorium are to be removed and collapsible chairs and tables provided so the room can be used for holding banquets and the directors' room in the rear of the auditorium is to be transformed into a kitchenette and equipped with culinary implements and apparatus for preparing the winds for banquet purposes. The vacant lot south of the Y. M. C. A. building is being filled up with a view of making grounds for holding outdoor meetings whenever desired and for hand-ball purposes for the membership. A number of improvements in the interior of the building—including the installation of an up-to-date water heater, new rocking chairs, settees and other furniture in the reading room—have already been made and the walls and ceilings have been repainted and redecorated, giving the place a much more inviting appearance than it presented for several years. Secretary Cash intends to keep up the work among the shopmen of the city, holding noon-day meetings and in other ways. Among the innovations to be made in this work will be the introduction of moving pictures. This feature may not be put into service before next fall, but Mr. Cash has the assurance of the approval of the board when the time for installing the apparatus arrives.

PENNSYLVANIA PAY CAR.

The Pennsylvania pay car arrives in this city next Monday morning, and will pay the station employees and yard men at one o'clock Monday afternoon. The road men will be paid Tuesday forenoon, and the Grand Rapids and Indiana pay car arrives here Tuesday noon and the shopmen will be paid Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

TEACHERS' SPECIAL.

The teachers' special over the Pennsylvania company goes out of here at 9 o'clock sharp on Thursday morning, and will carry six cars, going by way of Plymouth and arriving at South Bend shortly after noon. Returning it comes from South Bend Saturday, leaving the wagon city at two o'clock and arriving here between 5:30 and 6 o'clock.

Mrs. J. J. Butler, wife of Pennsylvania Passenger Fireman Butler, has been called to Portland, Ind., by the critical condition of her mother, who is ill.

Trainmaster H. W. Thomas and Chief Dispatcher J. H. Tucker, of the Hillsdale office of the New York Central, were business callers in the city yesterday.

John H. Base, president of the Base Foundry and Machine company, and Attorney Ed Hoffman returned Wednesday from New York city, where they transacted business matters.

John L. Miller and H. B. Kessler, night yardmaster and switchman, respectively, of the Wabash, are on duty again, after an absence of a month, which they spent on the Pacific coast.

Nickel Plate train No. 1, which passed through the city at noon today, carried thirty-seven men and women from Liverpool, England, who are en route to Utah. They are Mormon converts.

A. H. Johnston, who had been spending a few days in Fort Wayne, left for Columbus yesterday to resume his duties as foreman of a department of the Panhandle office.

An express car loaded with salmon from Oregon, consigned to parties in Boston, was a part of Nickel Plate train No. 2 which passed through the city this afternoon.

While operating a punch machine at the Fort Wayne Electric works, H. L. Merriman sustained a bad cut in one of his fingers. Dr. Fred Schulz had to take several stitches in closing the wound.

Assistant Road Foreman of Engines Robert J. Lyons, of the Pennsylvania company, has returned from Akron, O., where he and Mrs. Lyons spent Sunday with his mother. They found the aged woman in the best of health.

Conductor W. H. Walker is off duty from the Nickel Plate on account of sickness in his family. Conductor David Watterson is taking a lay off to attend in some private business. He has charge of a local run between Fort Wayne and Knox.

George H. McClintock, who was attending the funeral of a relative at Bedford, Pa., has returned home. During Mr. McClintock's absence the duty of motive power director at the Pennsylvania offices was performed by Dispatcher W. J. Newman.

Machinist William F. Koenig sustained an injury to one of his feet yesterday when a slipping box fell upon the members as he was at work in the Wabash shops. The great toe was badly crushed, but will be saved. Dr. C. V. Kautz attended the unfortunate man.

Philip Datz, for a dozen years employed as a switchman in the Wabash yards, has resigned and entered the retail butcher business. He has purchased and taken charge of the shop at 2031 Fairfield avenue, formerly owned by William L. Kohl, which enjoyed a good business.

William H. Whiters has purchased the C. J. Noll grocery and meat market, 717 Fourth street, and has already assumed charge of it. Mr. Whiters was formerly an interurban motorman, running between Bluffton and Marion, with headquarters in the latter city. He will move here this week.

News from the Wabash hospital at Peru is to the effect that there is no noticeable improvement in the condition of Machinist Richard Falconer, who has been confined to the institution for several months. No shipman enjoys the good will of his comrades to a greater extent than Mr. Falconer and every week some of the Wabash shopmen go down to Peru to see him. Today William Zimmerman and Fred Westerman, boilermakers, visited Mr. Falconer.

News of the death of Samuel D. Blair, at Tyrone, Pa., has been received at the local offices of the Pennsylvania. For a number of years preceding 1903 Mr. Blair was superintendent of the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania. He entered the employ of the company in 1853 and retired to the pension list in 1903.

Yesterday William Kohl astonished his comrades at the Fort Wayne Electric works by the announcement that he has been married since December 22. The maiden name of the bride was Miss Florence Stump, of Racine, Wis. The ceremony took place at the residence of her father in Laporte. The couple will reside in Racine, Mr. Kohl making the trips to and from the Electric works on interurban cars.

Wallace Hull, crossing flagman for the Lake Erie and Western at Kokomo, was killed almost instantly Tuesday. Hull had for some time been in charge of the Mulberry street crossing, and had always been considered a careful crossing man. It is not known exactly how Hull came to get in front of the passing switch engine that killed him, but it is thought his attention was drawn to a passing local which was pulling out of the yards, and not seeing the switch engine, which was coming down another track, stepped in front of it and met death.

WILLARD STOCK IS RISING AT HAVANA

Plenty of Money Offered on Johnson, But at Much Shorter Odds.

Havana, March 31.—Arrangements have been completed for offering police protection for the crowds during the Johnson-Willard fight next Monday. The race track and Havana street leading to stations of the electric line to the track will be patrolled by a double force. The mayor of Marianna, where the fight is slated, made arrangements with Colonel Davis, secretary of the interior, for guarding all parts of the track and ring with police in addition to which regular troops will be held in reserve nearby. The trolley company is arranging a fast service from the center of the city to the track, using electric cars on this line and on the lines from nearby towns.

of his age, and he finds it a constant struggle to deny himself water.

It is now evident that Johnson will go into the ring heavier than in any previous fight, probably at 220 or 235 pounds. Otherwise he appears to be in fine condition. Nevertheless doubt is expressed quite generally that he can go no more than half the forty-rounds. His best chance appears to be to beat down Willard during the first fifteen rounds. Willard is likely to attempt a slow, holding fight during the early stages. The hot weather of the last two days has made the pugilists cautious in their work. The temperature this forenoon was above 80. The road work of both men was easy and their public exhibition work later was to be several rounds shorter than heretofore.

TRY SENTINEL WANT ADS.

Why Does the Scenery Appear to Move When We Are Riding in a Train?

When you sit in a moving train looking out of the window it appears as though the fields, the telegraph poles and everything else outside were moving, instead of you. This is because our only ideas of motion are arrived at by comparison, and the fact that neither you nor the seats of the car or any other part of the inside of the car is changing its position, leads you to the delusion that the things outside the car are moving and not you. If you were to pull down all the curtains and the train were making no noise at all, you would not think that anything was moving. It would appear as though you were motionless just as everything in the car appears so. When you turn then to the window, and lift the curtain you carry in the back of your mind the idea of being at rest and that is what makes it appear as though the fields and everything outside were moving in an opposite direction. This is particularly noticeable when you are in a train in a station with another train on the next track. There is a sense of motion if one of the trains only is moving and you feel that it is the other train, because you are surrounded by objects in the car which are at rest, and when you look out at the other train with this half consciousness of rest in your mind, it appears as though the other train were moving when as a matter of fact it is your train. If the delusion happens to be turned the other way, it will appear as though you are moving and the other is still. It depends upon what cause the impression starts with. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, March 31.—Speculative selling today wiped out an early advance in the prices of wheat. Higher quotations at Liverpool were chiefly responsible for the bulge. The setback that ensued was influenced somewhat by favorable weather over the domestic winter crop belt. Opening prices, which ranged from 15¢ to 14¢ higher, were followed in some cases by a decline to below last night's level. The close was weak at 1½¢ to 1¼¢

under last night.
Corn suffered from lack of support. Several big houses were conspicuous on the selling side. After opening unchanged to ¼¢ off, the market continued to sag. The close was weak at ¾¢ to 1¼¢ net decline.
Better weather eased oats. The bulk of the business thought was between floor traders.
Scarcity of buying orders made provisions weak. Lard, especially, was being pressed for sale.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.
New York, March 31.—Specialties were again the features of chief interest during the early trading, some of these issues changing hands in blocks of a thousand or more shares. Motor stocks made the greatest gains, their rise extending from one to two and a half points. National Lead also added two points to its rise of the preceding session, and Amalgamated a point. In the railway division activity in Rock Island was resumed; that stock soon advancing to 2½, a point above its high price of yesterday. Missouri Pacific, Denver and Rio Grande preferred, Great Northern Ore and Bethlehem Steel also showed gains of a point or better.
Business in the first hour was almost as large as yesterday's huge overturn and considerably broader, but standard stocks were reactionary. In the second hour, however, fresh buying imparted new strength to Steel, Amalgamated and Smelting reaching to best prices of the present movement. Bethlehem Steel was comparatively neglected and heavy Rock Island extended its gain to five points with a continuance of the extensive demand. Some of the motor shares gained as much as five points and less prominent specialties showed gains of two to three points. Bonds were strong.

RIOTING ATTENDS A STREET CAR STRIKE

Seattle Police Kept Busy Preventing Attacks on the Cars.

Seattle, Wash., March 31.—Police were kept busy today preventing attacks on street cars as a result of a strike called last night by employees of the Seattle-Puget Sound Traction, Light and Power company. Rioting followed soon after a vote to strike had been taken at a mass meeting of all the labor unions held by the Central labor council.
The strike was called in an attempt to compel recognition of the union. No line was completely tied up, although blockades occurred frequently when crowds which filled the streets at the principal junction points cut trolley ropes, broke windows and endeavored to take off crews who refused to strike.
Samuel Atkinson, international organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, and W. B. Fitzgerald, chairman of the executive board directed the movement. They said 100 carmen had left their posts in response to the call and that within a few days the tie up would be complete. They said the only question at issue was the right to organize.
A. L. Kemper, general manager of the Puget Sound Traction, Light and Power company, said: "We have 2,300 employees of whom 1,000 are trainmen. None has complained to us. No demands have ever been presented. Our service was seriously deranged by the rioting but by re-routing some lines down town to avoid the crowds which were stopping the cars, breaking windows, cutting trolley ropes and stealing cash boxes and controllers, we were able to maintain partial service on all lines."

amined as many passengers as could be reached. The witness stated, according to the Matin, that they had been amazed at the statement made one night during the voyage by a fellow passenger when they were discussing German threats to torpedo ships passing through the war zone. This passenger is quoted as having remarked: "Oh, that isn't the only way the war zone would be dangerous. Germany is strong enough to do what she wants. This ship herself, even before she reaches the war zone, might be obliged to have recourse to the doctors and nurses aboard to care for the passengers."

SWOBODA IS RECALLED.

Wanted "Supplies" Shipped With Him as Excess Baggage.

New York, March 31.—The circumstances under which Mr. Swoboda sailed aboard La Touraine February 27 were clearly recalled today at the office of the French line here.

Mr. Swoboda, it was said, came into the office of the line on Feb. 26, the day before the steamer sailed, and, presenting what appeared to be an American passport, vized by the French consul here, said he wanted to engage passage to Havre. The ticket clerk, whom he engaged in conversation recalled him today as a pleasant spoken man of about thirty-seven years, wearing glasses, who said that he expected to sell some supplies to the French government. The nature of these supplies so far as could be recalled was not stated. Mr. Swoboda did say, however, the clerk recalls, that he wanted to take aboard samples of supplies and to do so would prefer to have them shipped with him as excess baggage. The clerk is under the impression that supplies had something to do with the use of gasoline—inferentially a gasoline engine of some sort.

Swoboda was sent to the freight agent of the line before the ticket was issued, to arrange for the transportation of his excess baggage. He came back in a few minutes to the ticket clerk, apparently disappointed, and said that the freight agent would not permit him to put his baggage aboard the steamer and that he would have to see Paul Faguet, the general agent of the line, to get permission to do so.

Mr. Faguet was in the office at the time and the ticket clerk directed Swoboda to the room. Swoboda remained closeted with Mr. Faguet the clerk said about ten minutes and emerged from his office smiling.

"I didn't get all that I wanted," Swoboda told the clerk, "but I did get a concession. I can take some of my samples with me."

Thereupon the clerk assented, Swoboda paid for his ticket, took it and departed. He made no further visit, so far as could be recalled to the office.

Recalling the conversation the clerk said Swoboda had told him he had visited the Cunard line office here and that the Cunard line was willing for him to carry his samples as excess baggage. Swoboda gave his full name as Raymond Rolf Swoboda. This was the name, the clerk remembered, that appeared on the paper which he thought to be a passport. He told the clerk that he was staying at the Manhattan hotel, this city. The hotel records show that P. R. Swoboda was registered there Feb. 24 and remained three days.

P. R. Swoboda registered from Paris. A search through the record of the French line disclosed the fact that a M. Swoboda (Monsieur Swoboda) was a passenger aboard the steamer Rochambeau leaving Havre Jan. 6, and arriving here Jan. 14. There was nothing to show whether this was the same Swoboda as sailed on La Touraine as no record was available here of the initials of Rochambeau's passengers.

boasted of Germany's power, was listed on the ship's records as "Raymond Swoboda, 68 years old, an American subject; profession, financier; destination, Paris."

Commissary Dubert, attached to the secret service department of the ministry of the interior, undertook the task of tracing Swoboda. He found that the man was fairly well known in Paris financial circles and had been connected with several more or less important transactions. He was supposed to be a Russian for he often speaks of his family connections at Petrograd and Moscow. He had served as a foreign representative for a broker named Morrison who conducts one of the large brokerage houses in Paris. None of Swoboda's business associates had seen him after the arrival of the Touraine at Havre where she docked safely on March 8, but Dubert traced him to a hotel in the Avenue Kleber, only to find that he had left ten days before after a brief stay. He registered there under the name of Raymond Swoboda and professed to be an American of important means who had come from New York on the Touraine.

Told Story of Fire.
He had told the story of the fire in the hotel, but the secret service operative said he was told that Swoboda's manner had aroused some suspicion and the other guests kept aloof from him.

He was traced to another hotel in the Place de Rivoli, where he was arrested. When his room was searched, the police declare, a number of letters written in German were found which seemed to point strongly to his guilt. He was turned over to the Havre police by the Paris authorities. Mr. Morrison, the broker, when told of Swoboda's arrest, expressed amazement. "I had business relations with Swoboda," he said, "but he always was perfectly honorable in his dealings with me. I knew that he formerly was employed in a large Paris bank and I was not astonished at his wide knowledge of finance. I knew also that his business brought him a large income."
